It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of Sarah A. L. Corwood. Let the said Will, together with the probate, be read and filed.

This 25th day of November 1905.

Just. R. Daer

Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina } Greene County,

I, Hannah Griggard, of the above said County and State, being of sound mind, but being mindful of the uncertainty of my worldly estate, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament.

First. My executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body and decent burial, and take care of the welfare of my family and relations, and pay all funeral expenses together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands out of my estate.

Second. I do leave to my husband, John Griggard, all the tract of land on which I now reside during his natural life; and then to my brothers and sisters, if living, if not living, then to their survivors, in severalty.

Third. I do give and devise to my niece, Maria Grant, after the death of my said husband, two acres of land in fee simple, the same to be taken from the tract of land on which I now reside, and nearest to the house in which I live and her husband now resides.

Fourth. I do give and devise to my niece, Susan Murphy, in fee simple, after the death of my said husband, one acre of land situated on the south side of the public road, and nearest to S. A. Phillips line.

Fifth. I do give and bequeath to my niece, Hannah Worthington, one half of my land.

Sixth. I do give and bequeath to my nephew, Thomas Worthington, one half of my land.

Seventh. I do give and bequeath to my nephew, David Worthington, one half of my land.

Eighth. I do give and bequeath to my brother, undivided, all my real and personal property, after paying all my just debts, to be equally divided.

Ninth. I do hereby constitute and appoint, E. D. Little, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes to execute the my last Will and Testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof, hereby making and declaring, utterly void, all other Wills and Testaments by me heretofore made. In witness whereof, I, the said Hannah Griggard, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 15th day of September, 1905.

Hannah Griggard Esq.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Hannah Griggard to be her last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who at her request and in her presence, have subscribed our names as aforesaid thereto.
