I, J. E. W. Sugg of Greene County, State of North Carolina hereby of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following:

That is to say

I That my executing hereafter named shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my relatives & friends, and pay all funeral expenses together with all my just debts however and whenever they come out of the first moneys that may come into her hands as a part or parcel of my estate

II All I own & enjoy in the way of real and personal property is now under my wife as it is mine I therefore will and devise unto her the use and absolute control of all my real and personal property during her widowhood hoping and believing she will never marry again but if she should marry again I will and devise that before as during that she shall relinquish all her right title and interest to and heretofore granted her in all my real and personal property and that the same shall be equally divided among all my children or their heirs as hereafter provided.

III After the death of my wife ^{and surviving the will} so to do, I will and devise that all my ^{real and} personal property be equally divided among all my children, or their heirs by adoption or choice, one member of said Committee by each child of fifteen years and upwards of age and thereby appoint my eldest child at that time to choose the members of the committee father youngest child, my next oldest for the best in age above the youngest and so on until each child is represented upon that committee and if said committee shall be not agreed as to the said equal division of my property in that event I name the Worshipful Master of the Green Lodge, No. 1, to be a member of that committee representing me and to be equally interested in each of my children.

going to each one an equal share of whatever they may at that time have as a joint and parcel of my estate in case any of my children who have gone to work for himself, shall have been given any thing by way of my wife it is my desire that such accounts be taken into consideration in this equal division of my property and those having had shares shall receive an equal share of the remainder of my property less the value of what they have already had said value of, not determined and settled from to my desire shall be determined as near as may be possible by said committee

IV If in the lifetime of my children expressed through their representative it is desired that to have public use of my personal property such may be, or desires may be otherwise as a majority may elect, the committee agreeing freely may make the decision.

V I desire to state plainly that all I have is left to my wife to absolutely control use and enjoy as her property without the interference of any one except as requested by note to &c.

VI Lastly I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife Jane Deming Sugg my lawful executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will according to the intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause hereof hereby working with the rights by me heretofore made. In witness whereof I have written at my hand and seal this the 5th day of October 1897

Elizabeth Bergeron of the County of Pitt and the State of North Carolina, being of sound mind & memory but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say First. That my Executor hereinafter named shall provide for my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my relations and friends, and pay and settle all my debts together with all my just debts, however and whenever owing, out of the money that may first come into his hands as a part or parcel of my estate, including the purchasing & placing stones at the head and foot of my grave Second - I give devise and bequeath to my niece Ida Beaman, wife of William Beaman, one bed and stead and bed clothing for the stead, Third -

I give and bequeath to my niece Meta Holloman one bed and bed stead and clothing for the bed.
 Fourth.

I give and bequeath to my nephews Chas. M. D. Bergeron and Wiley Diddy son of J. M. Diddy, the beds, bed steads and clothing for the beds and also the bed room suits in the room known as the parlor, equally divide between them.

Fifth. I give and bequeath to my nieces Bette Mann Ida Beaman, & Meta Holloman, all of my pictures in the parlor equally divide between them.

Sixth - I give and bequeath to my nephew, Wiley Diddy son of J. M. Diddy one room more named Mollie's room by me and under my possession.
 Seventh.

I give and devise to my nephews Chas. M. D.
 Bergeron and Wiley Diddy son of J. M. Diddy all that tract of land now owned by me to them ^{and their heirs} in fee simple forever
 Eighth.

My will and desire is that all the residue of my Estate including beds, bed clothing, household and kitchen furniture, mules, cattle hogs, hoes &c corn fodder all the crops of every description that may be upon the farm after taking out the debts and legacies above mentioned shall be sold and the debts owing to me collected and if there be any surplus over and above the paying of debts, expenses & legacies, that such surplus shall be equally divided and paid over to my nieces and nephews (viz) Ida Beaman, Meta Holloman, Chas.
 M. D. Bergeron and Wiley Diddy son of J. M. Diddy in equal parts, share and share alike to them and each and every of them their executors, administrators and assigns absolutely forever, after giving each of my nieces and nephews not mentioned twenty five cents in money to them or their personal representatives.

Ninth - Now whereas my nephew Wiley Diddy son of J. M.
 Diddy is a minor of about twelve years of age and be of full age of twenty one under the 15th of September 1914, now therefore, my will and desire is that B. A.
 Curranway is hereby appointed and constituted guardian in of my nephew to have and to hold the custody and guardianship both of his respective person and estate, until by the said Wiley Diddy the son of J. M.
 Diddy shall actually arrive at the full age of twenty one years.

And lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my trusted friend C. L. Burnett, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last Will and Testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause thereof, hereby approving and declaring utterly void all other wills and Testaments by me heretofore made.
