I, J. T. Jackson, of Greene County, State of North Carolina, being sound of mind and body but considering the uncertainty of this life do make & declare this to be my last will and testament in manner and form following to-wit: I give & devise to my beloved wife Minnie Jackson all of my estate possessed of at my death both real personal and mixed to have and to hold the same during her natural life - at her death I will & devise as follows:

To my children Joseph Jackson, Geo Jackson, Millie Jackson, Martha Jackson & the children of Everett Taylor begotten of the marriage with my daughter Emma Jackson, now dead. That is to say I will and devise that after the death of my said wife my estate is to be equally divided between the following persons to-wit Joseph Jackson, Geo Jackson, William Jackson, Martha Jackson & the three children of Everett Taylor by his wife Emma, the said three children of my said wife to have the part that their mother the said Emma would have taken had she been living.

The share given to my sons Geo & William are given conditionally that is if they shall remain with me until they are each one of them 21 years of age then they are to share equally with the other named but in case they shall leave me before arriving at that age then & in that case they are not to have any of my estate and the portion given to them shall be divided equally between my children Joseph Jackson, Martha Jackson & the three children of Everett Taylor, their father then taking the part the mother Emma would have taken had she been living.

I give to my son Geo Jackson the sum of Fifty Dollars to my son Robert the sum of Fifty Dollars. That the first charge on my said estate is to provide for me a suitable burial to be paid for out of my said estate subject to the wishes of my said family. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 17th day of January 1898.

J. T. Jackson

We the undersigned being called and sworn that we did sign the foregoing last will and testament as witnesses at the request of J. T. Jackson at his request & in his presence he at the same time making known to us that this was his last will & testament.
