

filed their own complaint or petition and the defendant's having failed to appear and answer said complaint and it being proper to the satisfaction of the court that Richard Grant late of said County made and executed a last will and testament in the month of November 1865 and the said will was duly and lawfully attested and published and that said Richard Grant died domiciled in the County of Orange on the 9th day of December 1865 and that his said will was duly proven by Joseph Furnage and Harley before the subscribing witnesses thereto before the Clerk of the Superior Court of said County and was duly admitted to probate sometime in the month of December 1865 and that Ann M Grant the executrix named in said will was duly appointed and qualified as executrix thereto and duly retained upon the discharge of the duties of said office and that said last will and testament was duly recorded in said office and is further appearing to the satisfaction of the court that said will and testament and the record of wills of said court was destroyed by fire together with the court house and old records of the court on or about March 1816 and that there is no certified and duly attested copy of said will in existence as it further appearing to the satisfaction of the court that said last will and testament of Richard Grant was in manner aforesaid and in substance set out in the complaint and petition herein. It is therefore considered adjudged and decreed that the will as set out in the petition herein be Recorded on the Record of Wills of said Court as the last will and testament of Richard Grant and the petition will pay the costs of this proceeding.

John R. Dale
Clerk Superior Court

In the name of God amen. I James H. Nevill of the County of Orange, and State of North Carolina being in health & body and of sound mind, do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following:-

I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife Elizabeth Nevill, all my property, real, personal, and mixed of what nature or kind soever, and whereon the same shall be at the time of my death, to have, to hold and to keep the same until her death, then to be divided equally among my children.

And I do nominate, constitute and appoint my said wife my sole executors of this my last will and testament to execute according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and if it shall be deemed necessary or adviseable to have a sale of personal or other property I do hereby direct and constitute the first Tuesday in January next following my death as the date of said sale, provided however, that if a reasonable length of time shall not intervene between the date of my death and the first Tuesday in January of the following year, the date of said sale shall be fixed for the first Tuesday of January of the year thereafter following.

In witness whereof, I the said James H. Nevill do hereunto set my hand and seal this 27th day of April AD 1901.

James H. Nevill Seal

Signed, declared and published by the said James H. Nevill as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence here subscribe our names as witnesses thereto

F. L. Lear
Chas. R. Taylor
over

State of North Carolina) In the Superior Court Brunswick County,

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of James H. Nettle denoted is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by S. E. Nettle the attorney herein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Jas H. Nettle by the oath and affirmation of F. L. Lear and Charles Harper the subscribing witness thereto; who being duly sworn doth depose and say, and each for himself doth and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of Jas H. Nettle, that the said Jas H. Nettle in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and that bears date the 27th day of April 1901.

And the deponent further saith that the said Jas H. Nettle the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing to be subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when said testator subscribed his name to the said last will and testament, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Jas H. Nettle was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further this deponent sayeth,

Surveyor sworn & subscribed Charles Harper this 10th day of January, 1902.
John R. Dail Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina, } In the Superior Court
Brunswick County,

It is therefore certified and adjured by the court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and Testament of James H. Nettle deceased.

Let the said will together with the probate be recorded and filed

This 10th day of January 1902

John R. Dail
Clerk Superior Court

North Carolina
Brunswick County,

I, John Sylerant of the County and State aforesaid being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my life do make and declare this my last will and testament:-

My executors, hereinafter named shall give to my body a decent burial and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts as hereinafter directed.

I give and devise to my beloved wife Ida E. Sylerant for the term of her natural life the following described real estate, Beginning at a cedar tree on Dog Branch canal at the corner of the hog lot and rabbit patch near the mouth of a small ditch emptying into said canal and thence in a straight line in a southerly direction to a white oak with a bump at the bottom, on the hill side in Peacock orchard, thence in a straight line in a westerly direction to a large white oak near the hog house near the road leading across the said canal to the gallinorum place, thence in a straight line in a westerly direction to a small persimmon tree marked a corner in the persimmon orchard near the watering hole, thence in a straight line in a southerly direction to a hickory tree near Temple house on the road leading to the North in a line

First

Second