A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John W. Dixon deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by E. D. Dixon, the Executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said John W. Dixon by the oath of commission of J. E. H. Sugg and J. C. Albrighton, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John W. Dixon that the said John W. Dixon in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which he bears date of the 16th day of Sept. 1899.

And the deponent further saith, That the said John W. Dixon the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid have the said paper writing subscribed by him, and intended to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said John W. Dixon was of sound mind and memory, of full age to do such a thing, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

I Jesse H. Borrows of the County and State aforesaid, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament:

- First My Executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body and about burial suitable to the wishes of my friends and relations, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first monies which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.
- Second I give and devise to my beloved wife Mary Ann Borrows all of my property, both real and personal for her natural life.
- Third At the death of my beloved wife my will is that my land be equally divided between my three sons John C. Borrows, Zebulon V. Borrows and Passmore L. Borrows, as follows: viz-
 That my son Passmore L. Borrows shall have the homestead or lot where I now live with the building and improvements.
 That my son Zebulon V. Borrows shall have the lot that he has improved and where his house and other buildings now stand and that my son John C. Borrows shall have his portion on the other part of the plantation not mentioned and specified to my other two sons Passmore L. Borrows and Zebulon V. Borrows.
- Fourth My further will and desire is that my three sons John C. Borrows, Zebulon V. Borrows and Passmore L. Borrows jointly pay to my beloved daughter Mary Elizabeth McKaye wife of James McKaye the sum of one hundred dollars.
- Fifth My further will and desire is that my three sons John C. Borrows, Zebulon V. Borrows and Passmore L. Borrows jointly pay to my three grand children, Arch Creek, Hyatt Creek and Edith Mrs. Creek children of my daughter Ella Sugg the sum of one hundred dollars.
- Sixth My further will is that all of my personal property be equally divided between one of my children John C. Borrows, Ella Sugg wife of R. B. Sugg, Mary Elizabeth McKaye wife of James McKaye, Zebulon V. Borrows and Passmore L. Borrows.
- Seventh I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved daughter purpose, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the laws and every part and clause thereof hereby reading and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In Witness Whereof, I the said Jesse H. Burroughs do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 17th day of September, 1900.
