A paper writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Mary C. Taylor deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by Octavius Taylor one of the Executors therein named and the due execution thereof by the said Mary C. Taylor is proved by the oath and examination of Samuel C. Hardy & J. H. Barrow the subscribing witnesses thereto. It is therefore considered by the Court, that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said Mary C. Taylor and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed and thereupon the said Octavius Taylor and John Miller Executors in said will, duly qualified as such by taking the oath required by law.

Last Will and Testament of Kinchen Hairwright
x Kinchen Hairwright of the County of Burke and State of North Carolina being of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of earthly existence do make and declare this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say:— First, that my executors (hereinafter named) shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my relatives and friends, and pay all funeral and just debts, howsoever and to whomsoever owing out of the money that may first come into their hands as a part of my estate.
Item:— I give and devise to my beloved wife one hundred and sixty acres of Land whereon I now live with all the houses and improvements, to have and to hold to her the said land, houses and improvements for and during the term of her natural life.
Item. I give and bequeath to my said beloved wife, my bedstead furniture, Household and Kitchen furniture, all my Cattle and Hogs all the crop of every description that may be upon the plantations whereon I now live and all the provisions on hand at the time of my death, to have and hold for and during her natural life.
Item, I give and bequeath to my son Jacob Hairwright five dollars as his portion of my estate, which amount is to be paid after the death of my wife. Item— My will and desire is that after the death of my wife, after taking out the debts and legacies above mentioned my estate shall be sold and the debts paid and the surplus over and above, shall be equally divided in equal portions to my five children, Alfred Hairwright, Abby Murphy, wife of James Murphy, Catherine Murphy, wife of James Murphy, Kinchen Hairwright & and to the heirs of James Hairwright and share alike to them and each and every of them their executors, administrators and assigns absolutely forever.
And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my trusty friends John T. Dorman and Gilbert A. Moore my lawful executors to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament.

according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause thereof, thereby making and declaring null and void all other Wills and Testaments by him heretofore made.

In witness whereof Kinchen Wainwright do hereto set his hand and seal this 14th day of Feb. in the year of our Lord 1878.

Kinchen Wainwright Sr. (Real)
