

State of North Carolina, In Superior Court.
 Green County, Before Clerk.
 In Re Estates

Order for Probate of Will.

Whituel Hordee deceased.
 A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Whituel Hordee, dec'd, is exhibited in open Court for probate by Sammie Whituel Executor therein named; and the due execution thereof by the said Whituel Hordee, dec'd, is duly proved by the oath and examination of Executors Hordee and E. H. Hornaday subscribing witnesses thereto and it is further shown to the satisfaction of the Court by said witnesses that the said Whituel Hordee was at the time of making said Will of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a will and under no restraint to their knowledge, information or belief.

It is thereupon considered, adjudged and decreed, that said proof is sufficient and according to law and that said paper writing is and contains the last will and testament of Whituel Hordee, dec'd. And on motion it is ordered that said Will be admitted to probate and recorded in the Book of Wills of Green County and as such filed as provided by law in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court of said County.

It is further ordered that said Sammie Hordee be allowed to qualify as executor as provided by law and enter upon the discharge of the duties imposed by said trust.
 Dated this the 16th day of July 1897.

J. W. Blount,
 Clerk of Superior Court.

I Lucretia Edwards of the State of North Carolina, Green County, being of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do hereby make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following, to wit: I say: First that my executor herein after named shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my relations and friends and pay all funeral expenses together with my debts however and whomever owing out of the money that may first come into his hands as part or parcel of my estate.

Then 2nd I leave and devise to my daughter Peggy Worrell one tract of land known as the lower land containing 120 ¹/₂ acres during her natural life and enough to pay her funeral expenses and doctor's bills and afterwards to the children of Wm. H. Edwards &c. I give and devise to the heirs of Wm. H. Edwards deceased the Old Home place on Apple tree containing 170 acres more or less to have and to hold the same I give my household property to Peggy Worrell and the heirs of Wm. H. Edwards &c. One half of the property to Peggy Worrell she having share the other half to the heirs of Wm. H. Edwards &c.

And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint Hawood Edmundson my lawful executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and seal thereof hereby making and declaring all other wills, testaments heretofore by me made utterly void. In witness whereof the said Lucretia Edwards do hereunto set my hand and seal this the 14th day of October 1890 One thousand eight hundred and ninety.

Lucretia Edwards (initials)
 mark

Signed sealed and published by the said Lucretia Edwards to be her last will, and testament in presence of us at her request and in her presence do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

Atttest

Geo. W. Lane
E. C. Cobb

Smith Edwards ✓

State of North Carolina, In Superior Court
Greene County, Before J. W. Blount, Clerk
In Re Estate

Order for Probate of Will.

Lucretia Edwards deced.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Lucretia Edwards decd., is exhibited in open court for probate, Haywood Edmundson Executor therein named; and the due execution thereof by said Lucretia Edwards, decd., is duly proven by the oath and affirmation of Geo. W. Lane and E. C. Cobb (2 of the) subscribing witnesses thereto and it is further shown to the satisfaction of the court by said witnesses that the said Lucretia Edwards was, at the time of making said will, of sound mind and memory, of full age, to execute a will and under no restraint to their knowledge, information or belief.

It is thereupon considered, adjudged and decreed, that said proof is sufficient and according to law and that said paper writing is and contains the last will and testament of Lucretia Edwards, decd. And on motion it is ordered that said will be admitted to probate and recorded in the Book of Wills of Greene County and as such filed as provided by law in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court of said County. It is further ordered that said Haywood Edmundson be allowed to qualify as executor as provided by law and enter upon the discharge of the duties imposed by said trust.

Dated this the 6th day of Dec'r 1897.

J. W. Blount,
Clerk of Superior Court.

North Carolina = Pitt County
I John O. Pollard of the aforesaid County considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, and being in sound health both of mind and body do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First- I consign my soul to my maker who gave it and I leave my body to be buried by my Executor, to be hereinafter named in a manner suitable to the wishes of my family and friends and he shall pay all expenses of the same together with all my just and honest debts out of the first moneys that shall come into his hands as a part or parcel of my estate.

Item 1st I give and bequeath to my wife Sarah Pollard three hundred dollars of my personal estate to be paid to her by my executor immediately after my death.

Item 2nd The remainder of my personal estate I give and bequeath to my wife Sarah Pollard, my daughter Mary E. Edwards, wife of B. W. Edwards, and my son W. A. Pollard to be divided equally between them share and share alike.

Item 3rd I give bequeath and devise to my daughter Mary E. Edwards wife of B. W. Edwards, the tract of land in Pitt County known as the Mr. Arthur Place containing one hundred and fifty five and one half acres and another tract in Wayne County North Carolina adjoining the lands of Haywood Ail. The Hughes Place and the lands of B. D. Edwards containing by estimation one hundred and ten acres upon condition that she pay to my wife Sarah Pollard the sum of $1000.00 annually as long she may live to her and her heirs forever. In the event however that my said daughter Mary E. Edwards shall die without leaving any living issue begotten of her body then and in that case the said tracts of land shall go to my son W. A. Pollard upon the same conditions as it was devised to my daughter Mary E.