Graham County }

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of J. E. Carraway, deceased, and the said will together with the probate, be recorded and filed. This 17th day of June 1901

John R. DeLoach Clerk
Superior Court

I, Marina Frizzell of the County of Graham and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, do make and declare this paper writing to be my last will and testament in manner and form as follows.

I then, I give and bequeath to my beloved husband Henry H. Frizzell during his natural life all of my personal property of any and all descriptions, and after the death of the said Henry H. Frizzell I desire that the said personal property so given to him be given to my niece Alice V. Lewis if living, if not living then the said personal property shall be equally divided between the children of the said Alice V. Lewis.

I then, I loan to my beloved husband during his natural life my plantation situated in Miller's Green Township, Graham County, North Carolina, adjoining the lands of A. E. Denton, W. A. Darden and others, containing eighty seven acres more or less and known as the Brown plantation, and after the death of my said husband Henry H. Frizzell I give and bequeath the lands so loaned to him and described in this item, to my niece Alice V. Lewis during her natural life and at her death to her children in fee simple.

And lastly I constitute and appoint my husband Henry H. Frizzell my executor to execute this my last will.

In testimony whereof I have to set my hand and seal this the 28th day of March A.D. 1901

Marina Frizzell
