

Paulkner, which I devise to be loaned to her during her life, and after her death so much as may not be used by the said Liddie Paulkner to go to the other legatee in this item, and in the case of Frank Small with the proviso that should he remain with me until my death, then he shall receive his share, and in case he shall not do so, then his share shall be equally divided among the other legatees in this item.

And lastly my beloved husband Thos. H. Sugg, Executor named in my said will and testament, having died, I hereby appoint my friends Samuel C. Sugg and Jesse H. Aldridge my executors to execute my will and testament, which I hereby approve and publish, and declare together with this codicil to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

Given under my hand and seal, this the 13th day of August 1897
Signed, Sealed, published
Fannie Sugg

and declared by the said Fannie Sugg to be a codicil and a part of her last will and testament, in the presence of us, who at her request and in her presence, subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

Thomas M. Gordon
J. H. C. Taylor.

State of North Carolina, SS. In the Superior Court
Greene County

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament together with a codicil of Fannie Sugg deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Samuel C. Sugg & J. H. Aldridge the executors therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Fannie is proved by the oath and examination of J. D. W. Sugg and John W. Tilghman the subscribing witnesses to the will and Thomas M. Gordon and J. H. C. Taylor the subscribing witnesses to the codicil who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and say that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of Fannie Sugg that the said Fannie Sugg in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 10th day of March 1882, and Aug. 13, 1887.

And the deponent further saith, That the said Fannie Sugg the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited, to be her last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the said time when the said testator subscribed her name to said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Fannie Sugg was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; And further these deponents say not.

Sworn to and Subscribed this 8th day of January, 1890, before me
Dw. Patrick Clerk Superior Court.

J. E. W. Sugg
J. W. Tilghman
Thomas M. Gordon
J. H. C. Taylor

State of North Carolina In the Superior Court.
Greene County

In the Matter of the Last Will of Fannie Sugg appearing to the Court by the oath and depositions of J. E. W. Sugg and J. W. Tilghman Thomas M. Gordon and J. H. C. Taylor the subscribing witnesses thereto, that a paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Fannie Sugg and that the same was duly executed by said Fannie Sugg in the presence of said witnesses and that at the time of signing the said the said Fannie Sugg was of sound mind. It is therefore adjudged that the said paper writing be admitted to probate as the last will and testament of the said Fannie Sugg and the executors therein named qualify as such.

This the 8th day of January, 1890.

Dw. Patrick Clerk Superior Court.

Last Will
of
Mark P. Taylor

I, Mark P. Taylor of the State of North Carolina and County of Greene, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do ordain and declare this my last will and testament in form and manner following, viz: My Executor hereinafter named shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my friends and pay all just debts out of my estate that may come into his hands at my death.

Item 1st I give to my beloved wife Sarah Jane Taylor all my personal property of every description and also all my real estate to do as she pleases with

I constitute and appoint M. P. Taylor the executor of this my last will and testament, and do hereby revoke any and all wills that may have been previously made by me.

At witness my hand and Seal this 31st May 1890.
Witness
Katie Smith
John Taylor.

State of North Carolina } S.B. In the Superior Court
Greene County

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of M. P. Taylor deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for Said County, by J. P. Taylor the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said M. P. Taylor is proved by the oath and examination of Katie Smith & John Taylor the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn doth depose and say, and each furnished depose and say that she and him are subscribing witnesses to the paper writing now shown him then purporting to be the last will and testament of M. P. Taylor that the said M. P. Taylor in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 31st day of May, 1890.

And the deponent further saith, that the said M. P. Taylor the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid, the said M. P. Taylor was of sound mind and memory, of full age, to execute a will and was not under any duress, threat or the knowledge or belief of this deponent. And further that deponent saw and Subscribed this 23rd day of June 1890, before me.

Katie Smith (Seal)
John Taylor (Seal)

State of North Carolina } S.B. In the Superior Court
Greene County } In the matter of the last will of
M. P. Taylor, it appearing to the Court by the oath and examination of Katie Smith and John Taylor the subscribing witnesses thereto, that the paper writing now produced by the executor therein named is the last will and testament of M. P. Taylor and that the same was duly executed by the said M. P. Taylor in the presence of said witnesses, and that at the time of signing the same the said M. P. Taylor was of sound mind. It is thereupon adjudged that the said paper writing be admitted to probate as the last will and testament of said M. P. Taylor and the executor therein named qualified as such.

1899
This the 23rd day of June, 1890.

D. W. Patrick Clerk Superior Court.

Last will
of
Matthew Fields

North Carolina - Greene County

In the name of God Amen, I Matthew Fields of the State and County above named, being mindfull of the uncertainty of life and certainty of death and being of sound mind do publish and declare this to be my last will & testament I devise & give all of my Real Estate adjoining the lands of Richard Hardy, Octavius Taylor & others, containing one hundred & fifty acres more or less situated in Greene County, to the following named persons James Wade and Marcia Wade

Item Second

I give and bequeath all my personal property of every description to James Wade & Marcia Wade

Item Third

I hereby appoint my friend J. B. Fields executor to this my last will and testament and direct him to pay all of my honest debts and burial expenses

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & Seal, this 16th day of Sept, 1888.

Matthew Fields (Seal)

Subscribed in the presents
of John T. Wooten,
Calijah Taylor,
Robert Harper.

State of North Carolina } S.B. In the Superior Court
Greene County }

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Matthew Fields, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk Superior Court for said County, by J. B. Fields the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said