

Last Will and Testament of Mrs Zilphia J. Cox.

North Carolina }
Greene County }

I, Zilphia J. Cox of said State and County do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following: That is to say - It is my will and desire that my executor hereinafter named shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and have a tomb stone erected over my grave like the one over the grave of my late husband S. P. Cox, and to pay all my just debts to whomsoever owing out of the first monies that may come into his hands as a part and parcel of my estate. I give and bequeath to Willie W. Cox, Charles P. Farmer, Zilphia E. Cox and John C. Cox and Pinkney, Zilphia, Sallie, Bettie and Abundance Darden Children of S. L. Darden the sum of one dollar each to them and their heirs forever.

Item 1st

Item 2^d

Item 3^d

I give and bequeath to Thomas S. Kennedy the sum of five hundred dollars to him and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath to Francis E. Williams, wife of Hurrey E. Williams, all of my estate of every description not heretofore disposed of in Items 1st and 2^d to be hers and her heirs absolutely forever. Lastly I constitute and appoint Thomas S. Kennedy my lawful Executor to execute this my last will and Testament according to the true intent and meaning thereof.

In the matter of the last will of Zilphia J. Cox.

It appearing to the Court by the oath and examination of W. M. Darden the surviving subscribing witness thereto that the paper writing purported by the executor therein named is the last will and Testament of Zilphia J. Cox in the presence of the said witnesses and that the same was declared by the said Zilphia J. Cox in the presence of said witnesses and the witnesses W. A. Darden now dead, and at the time of signing the same the said Zilphia J. Cox was of sound mind. And the hand writing of the said witness W. A. Darden now dead having been proved by the oath and examination of Swift Galloway it is adjudged that the said paper writing be admitted to probate as the last will and Testament of Zilphia J. Cox and the executor therein named qualify as such.
