3 S.S. In the Superior Court.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of James P. Britt deceased, is exhibited before me the undersigned clerk of the Superior Court for said County by J. D. Britt the executor therein mentioned and the due execution thereof by the said James P. Britt is proved by the oath and examination of H. H. Britt and S. E. Bridgen the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose & say and each for himself depose and saith that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of James P. Britt that the said James P. Britt in the presence of the defendant subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the 4th day of August, 1857.

And the defendant further saith that the said James P. Britt the testator deceased, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing to be his last will and testament and the defendant did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the testator. And the defendant further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of defendant's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid, the said James P. Britt was of sound mind and memory, of full age to make a will and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of the defendant. And further that defendant say not.

Last will
Pattie L. Dixon

State of North Carolina, 3rd Superior Court. I, Pattie L. Dixon being in reasonable health, sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and constitute this my last will and testament, in manner and form following: That is to say, Should my husband Josiah Dixon survive me, it is my will and desire that he shall have a life estate in the lands whereon we now live, the same being the tract of land conveyed to me by my mother Martha Harper, and at his death I will the Willie C. Murphy son of Oliver Murphy be the sole and only heir to said tract of land provided however I should said Willie C. Murphy die without children then it is my will and desire that my sister Aicie F. Carr and her children shall be the only heirs and legal representatives to said tract of land.

In witness whereof I the said Pattie L. Dixon do hereunto set my hand and affix my seal, Published, and declaring this to be my last will and testament in the presence of 16th day of January, 1880.
