Last will and Testament of Sanders P. Cox decd.

I Sanders P. Cox of the County of Greene and State of North Carolina being in feeble health, but sound mind & memory, do make & publish, this my last will and Testament hereby revoking and making void all former wills by me heretofore made. I give and bequeath, and devise unto Willie P. Cox, Ohio, P. F. Hammon and Obedience C. Paraden and their heirs, the tract of land purchased of William A. Paraden and Willie H. Rountree trustees of Bassett Lick, is being the tract whereon I now reside, also one other tract of land deeded to me by Samuel Taylor, also all my house hold and kitchen furniture, all my stock of every kind, all my corn, fodder and peas, pork and potatoes. That may be on hand at the time of my death - also all my farming implements and riding vehicles of every description. This including the track above named on the plantation where I now reside, in special lines and confidence that they will allow my wife Jephtha J. Cox, the use and enjoyment of the same during her life or widowhood And after her death, for marriage of my wife, then the said trustees will deed the remainder for the use and enjoyment of my daughter Francis F. Williams, And after the death of the said Francis F. Williams, if she leaves no living heir to the age of twenty-one years, then the remainder to my living children if any, if no living children to my grand children.

Item 2nd

Also ten shares of stock in the Wilson Bank I give and devise unto Jas. P. Hammon, Jephtha J. Cox, and Obedience C. Paraden and their heirs, the tract of land conveyed to me by Wiley H. Cox and wife Mary A. Cox by deed bearing date January 25th, 1878, and supposed to contain one hundred and twenty-five acres more or less, together with the mill on said land, also one other tract of land known as a part of the Thomas Buffin land, adjoining the land of Willie Thompson, Ty Ann & Annamond and others, supposed to contain three hundred and fifty acres more or less, in special trust and confidence that they will allow my son Wiley W. Cox the use and enjoyment of the same during his life, and after the death of the said Wiley W. Cox the first tract mentioned in this item is to go to the use and enjoyment of my grand-son Sanders P. Cox and his heirs, and the second tract mentioned in this item after the death of said Wiley W. Cox is to go to the use and enjoyment of my grand-son Lewis M. Cox and his heirs.

Item 3rd

I give and devise unto Wiley W. Cox, Chas. P. Farnum and Obedience C. Harder and their heirs that portion of the land deced to me by Harry Edmundson to the line through the land made by myself it being the side next to the T. F. Vaid line now owned by me supposed to contain four hundred and thirty acres more or less in special trust and confidence that they will allow my grand-son John B. Cox the use and enjoyment of the same during his life, in case he should die before he arrives at the age of twenty one years and should not leave any living children at his death then to the use and enjoyment of all my living children and their heirs.

Item 4th

I give and devise unto Wiley W. Cox, Chas. P. Farnum and Obedience C. Harder and their heirs the tract of land I purchased of Thomas F. Vaid to the line of the land made by myself adjoining the tract already deced in trust to my grand-son John C. Cox supposed to contain four hundred and ten acres more or less in special trust and confidence that they will allow my grand-daughter Jephtha E. Cox the use and enjoyment of the same during her life, in case she should die without leaving any lawful children then to the use and enjoyment of all my living children and their heirs.

Item 5th

I give and devise unto Wiley W. Cox and Chas. P. Farnum and their heirs the balance of the land deced to me by Harry Edmundson adjoining the lands known as Samue R. Priggen, &c. &c. and to the dividing line made by myself supposed to contain three hundred and twenty acres more or less, also one other tract of land deced to me by A. F. Harder & wife supposed to contain two hundred and forty acres more or less, it being a portion common my now line, also one other tract of land deced to me by A. F. Harder and wife known as the Red House land, said to contain one hundred and twenty-eight acres more or less, also one other tract deced to me by same parties known as the Jesse Priggen land said to contain thirty-eight acres more or less, also one piece in special trust and confidence that they will allow my daughter Obedience C. Harder the use and enjoyment of the same during her life, in case she should die without leaving any living children then to the use and enjoyment of all my living children and their heirs.

of all the real estate mentioned in this item to the heirs of Obedience C. Harder, in case she dies without leaving any living children the remainder to go to my living children and their heirs. The piece mentioned in this item after the death of Obedience C. Harder to her youngest daughter I also give and devise to the said trustees two shares in the Birmingham and Heldon Rail Road for use and enjoyment of my daughter Obedience C. Harder and her heirs.

Item 6

I give and devise unto Wiley W. Cox, Obedience C. Harder and Jephtha J. Cox and their heirs a portion of the land deced to me by J. H. Barnes and wife and a small portion of the Mrs. Puffin land making the dividing line made by myself supposed to contain seven hundred and fifty acres more or less in special trust and confidence that the said trustees will allow my grandsons Moses C. and Chas. P. Farnum the use and enjoyment of the same during their lives, in case of the death of the said Moses C. Farnum they will allow said Chas. P. Farnum the use and enjoyment of the same during his life, the remainder to his children and their heirs if he has any, if not any to go my living children and their heirs.

Item 7
