

request and in his presence and presence of each other were hundred. For our hands, as witnesses of the same order day and date named in the said bill and Testament as the date of the execution thereof

J. B. Sugg
B. F. Albrighton

State of North Carolina } SS In the Probate Court, Brunswick County

A paper purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of L. T. Sugg deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned as Judge of Probate for said County, by B. F. Albrighton one of the subscribing witnesses thereof, and that due execution thereof by the said L. T. Sugg by the oath and examination of J. B. Sugg and B. F. Albrighton the subscribing witnesses thereof, who being duly sworn doth depose and say, and each for himself deposes and says, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of L. T. Sugg that the said L. T. Sugg in the presence of the deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid, and which he heard date of the 26th day of October, 1882

And the deponent further says, that the said L. T. Sugg the Testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare said paper writing to be subscribed by him and exhibit to be his Last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereof, and at the request and in the presence of said Testator.

And the deponent further says, that at the said time when said Testator subscribed his name to the said Last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereof, as aforesaid, the said L. T. Sugg was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of the deponent.

And further the deponent says not.

Sworn and Subscribed this 12th day of November, 1882 before me

D. W. Patrick

Probate Judge

J. B. Sugg (Seal)
B. F. Albrighton (Seal)

North Carolina
Brunswick County

In the Probate Court
Nov 12th 1882.

A paper writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of L. T. Sugg deceased, is exhibited for Probate in open court, by B. F. Albrighton one of the witnesses thereof, and that due execution thereof by the said L. T. Sugg is proven by the oath and examination of J. B. Sugg and B. F. Albrighton the subscribing witnesses thereof.

It is considered by the court, that the said paper writing and even parts and clause thereof is the Last Will and Testament of the said L. T. Sugg, and the same is ordered to be registered and filed.

And there being no executor named therein, and the widow Mrs. O. S. Sugg having relinquished her right to Administration thereof in favor of B. F. Albrighton, the said Albrighton duly qualified as Administrator with the will annexed by taking the oath and giving the bond required by law.

D. W. Patrick
Probate Judge

Last Will and Testament of William Faircloth

I, William Faircloth, of the County of Brunswick and State of North Carolina being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, publish & declare this to be my Last Will and Testament as follows.

1st I desire that my executor shall provide a decent burial for my body and pay all funeral expenses & all my just debts out of such funds as shall first come to his hands.

2nd I give and bequeath, to my beloved wife Ella, absolutely my present buggy horse, buggy and harness, one cow and pigs and ten shoats & three hundred dollars in money - also all the cattle, beds and furniture and all the household and kitchen furniture which she had at the time of our marriage.

3rd I devise and give to my son James B. Faircloth and his heirs a portion of the tract of land on which I now live bounded as follows: Beginning at a corner between myself & J. B. Faircloth in the line of John Lane on the road leading from Spiggle's Bridge to Hapwood Baumgardner's and running thence to and at said bridge to the next corner between myself and J. B. Faircloth, and thence southward with the extended corner of the line now running between me and J. B. Faircloth between said road and Sandhollow Creek above, to the big branch thence up said road to a corner between John Lane and myself.

thence along the line between John Town and myself, to the beginning to have and to hold the same to the said J. B. Faircloth and his heirs forever 4th I devise and give to my son William J. Faircloth and his heirs a portion of the tract of land on which I now reside including my dwelling, bounded as follows, beginning at a stone corner there on the bank of Contentment Creek north of the aforesaid road being a common line between J. B. Faircloth and myself and running thence down the course of said creek to the Trinity school the mouth of a ditch on the side of the aforesaid road two or three hundred yards in the rear of my gin house, thence with the course of said ditch a straight line to said creek below, thence down said creek to the mouth of big branch, thence up said branch to the corner of J. B. Faircloth as above located, thence along third line of J. B. Faircloth as above located to the beginning, to have and to hold the same to the said W. J. Faircloth and his heirs forever.

5th I devise and give to my daughter Martha A. Moore, the wife of Rev. Thos. Moore, all that portion of my present plantation lying in the bend of Contentment Creek opposite to Spight's bridge and bounded by said creek and the ditch boundary line located in item 4th above, to have and to hold the same during her natural life, and after her death to be equally divided between her children or their representatives in fee simple.

6th I give and bequeath absolutely to my son W. J. Faircloth one fourth of all the balance of my estate and money of any and every description.

7th I give and bequeath absolutely to my son J. B. Faircloth one fourth of all the balance of my estate & money of any and every description.

8th I give & bequeath absolutely to the children of my deceased son Selig one fourth of all the balance of my estate & money of any & every description.

9th I give and bequeath absolutely to my son W. J. Faircloth the remaining one fourth of all the balance of my estate & money of any and every description, to have and to hold the same in trust for the use & benefit of my daughter Martha A. S. Moore & her children, including any children she may have hereafter. I hereby give my said trustee full power and authority to use his trust funds in such manner for the support of my daughter & the comfort & education of her children as he may think proper to be applied when and in such manner as he may deem best - and after the death of my daughter, the balance of this trust fund shall belong to her children or their representatives, to be used as aforesaid.

at the discretion of my said trustee I give & bequeath to my son William J. Faircloth one certain bedstead & furniture & to my son J. B. Faircloth one bed & furniture & to my daughter Martha A. S. Moore one bed & furniture.

11th I desire that my executor shall sell all my property now herein disposed of, collect all monies due me - pay my debts and expenses of his administration & deposit of the proceeds as herein directed.

12th I hereby nominate, constitute & appoint my son James B. Faircloth my lawful executor to execute this my last will & testament according to its true intent & I hereby revoke all wills & testaments heretofore made by me.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand & Seal, this 7th day of April, 1868.

Signed and Sealed in the presence of
W. J. Dorseth
Edward C. Yellowley

William J. Faircloth (Seal)
Mort

State of North Carolina
Meigs County } ss. In the Probate Court

A paper purporting to be the last will and Testament of William Faircloth, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Judge of Probate for said County, by James B. Faircloth the executor therein mentioned, and said executor deposes that by the said William Faircloth by the oath and examination of W. J. Dorseth & Edward C. Yellowley the subscribing witnesses thereto; who, being duly sworn, both depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper purporting now shown him, purporting to be the last will and Testament of William Faircloth; that the said William Faircloth, in the presence of said deponents, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 7th day of April, 1868.

And the deponents further depose, that the said William Faircloth the testator aforesaid, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper purporting to be his last will and Testament, and this deponent did subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further