In the name of God, Amen.

I William Edwards being of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare my last will and Testament in manner and form following, to wit:

First— It is my will and desire that my executor herein after named shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my friends and relations, and pay the expenses of the same together with all my just debts out of the first moneys coming into his hands before going to my estate.

Second: I give and devise to my wife Mary Edwards for the term of her natural life only the tract of land upon which I now live containing one hundred and eight (108) acres, more or less, and upon the five acres of said land hereafter given and devised to my five daughters, to have and to hold said land unto my said wife for and during the term of her natural life and no longer.

Third: I give and devise one acre of said land to each of my five daughters, Hagar Edwards, Mary Edwards, Eliza Moore wife of Joe Moore, Maria wife of Willie and Dixie Edwards the said acre of land to be divided be each of my said daughters after my death in conjunction with my executor herein after named, the said land to be selected from that portion of my land adjoining the lands of Dr. Will. Sugg, and when so selected the same to be surveyed by said executor at the expense of my estate. The said lots of land when so surveyed and set apart to my said daughters to be held by them for the term of their natural lives respectively with remainder in fee simple to their children, and I do hereby expressly authorize, empower and direct my executor herein after named to execute and deliver to each of my said daughters a deed for the one acre of land so set apart and assigned to her the said deed to be written as herein before directed.

Fourth: I give and devise to my two sons Calvin Edwards and Joe Edwards a portion of my after the death of their mother, all of that portion of the tract of land upon which I now live which I here bequeath give and devised to my wife Mary Adams for the term of her natural life, to have and to hold the said lands unto my said two sons for the term of their natural lives only with remainder in fee simple to their children.

Fourth: I give and bequeath unto my said wife and to all of my said children to be equally divided between them by my executor the sum of one hundred dollars due me at my death from the Odd Fellows Lodge of which I am a member.

Fifth: I give and bequeath to my wife Mary Adams and my two daughters Mary Adams and Fizzie Adams to be equally divided between them by my executor the one hundred dollars due me at my death from the Masonic Lodge of which I am a member.

Sixth: I give, devise and bequeath all the residue of my estate both real and personal, after the payment of all my just debts, and the costs of administration and the legacies herein before mentioned, to my said wife Mary Adams and my two daughters Mary Adams and Fizzie Adams to be equally divided between them.

Seventh: It is my will and desire that my two daughters Mary Adams and Fizzie Adams shall have and retain a home on the land herein devised to my wife as long as they remain unmarried and further it is my will and desire, and I hereby direct that my mother Fizza Edwards and my sister Mary Adams shall have a home on my said land as long as they live.

Eighth: I hereby constitute and appoint my friend Isaac D. Pauls my lawful executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament, and every part and clause thereof according to the true intent and meaning of the same, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof I the said William Adams hereunto set my hand and seal this the fourteenth (14) day of July A.D. 1903.

Will of
Irene J. Gremont

I now am made by these presents that I, Irene J. Gremont of the State of North Carolina and County of Greene, being of sound mind and memory but weak in body - and considering the uncertainty of this life, do make, declare, and publish this my last Will and Testament -

First: - That my executor hereinafter named shall collect all debts due me at my death, and pay all funeral expenses, preparing for my body at death burial, and pay all my just debts to whomsoever owing, out of the first monies that may come into his hands.

Second: - I give and bequeath and devise to my brother-in-law - W. T. Gremont - my share with the understanding that he pay to my sister-in-law - Fannie P. Whitaker - Eight hundred dollars, and to my lawful heirs fourteen hundred dollars.

Third: - At the suggestion of my beloved husband not long before his death, I leave to my brother, Morris Gremont, my library.

Fourth: - I give to my sister-in-law, Mrs. Fannie P. Whitaker, one Oregon portrait of my beloved husband.

Fifth: - The balance of my personal property not otherwise mentioned in this my Will, I leave to my dear Mother to be used or disposed of at her option.

I do nominate, constitute and appoint my brother W. T. Gremont, sole executor of this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal, read publicly, and declare this to be my last will and testament, in the presence of witnesses named below, this the 10th day of August 1903.
