

Bingham, Apple, dear Will.

In the name of God Amen. I, Bingham Apple being full in body but of sound and disposing mind and memory pleased to God for the same and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs whilst I have strength and capacity so to do do make and publish this my last will and testament hereby declaring and making it to be in full force by me at any time hereafter made and first and principally I commit my Soul into the hands of my Creator who gave it and my body to the earth to be interred at the burying ground at Apple Chapple at the discretion of my Executors hereinafter mentioned - that as to such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to interest me I dispose of the same as follows to wit:

First - I give unto my first born son Will Bingham all my death together with my furniture, expenses and all charges touching the proving of it whosoever concerning this my will shall in the first place out of my personal estate and effects be fully paid and satisfied and free and after payment thereof and subject thereto then my will is that all the residue of my estate of realty and chattels shall be disposed of as follows to wit:

First - It will be my will for my Executors to dispose of some of my lands with other property to make the demands against my my Executor who gave it and my body to the earth to be interred at the burying ground at Appleton Chapel at the discretion of my Executors hereinafter mentioned - And as to such worldly estate wherewith it both pleased God to enrich me I dispose of the same as follows to wit:

First, I give, devise, bequeath and shall be deemed to give and my heirs together with my Executors, executors and all charges touching the proving of or otherwise concerning this my will shall in the first place out of my personal estate and effects be fully paid and satisfied and then and after payment thereof and without charge thereon my will is that all the residue of my estate of whatever kind shall be disposed of as follows to wit:

That the said residue shall be powerfully to my Executors to dispose of some of my lands with other property to make the demands against my estate and my will is that my Executors hereinafter named shall dispose of such portion or portion of my land and other property as shall be most advantageous to my estate and after a sufficient portion has been disposed of to satisfy all just claims against my said estate then my will is that my beloved wife Sarah H. Apple shall have the use of all my lands and other property that may remain and belong to my said estate of all kinds whatsoever for the purpose of visiting be to raise and educate my children in a suitable manner until my youngest son Franklin B. shall arrive at full age provided however that she should carry them my will is that she have one hundred acres of my land for and during his natural life to him in such way so as not unduly to injure the balance of said lands in value and that he have in house and barn one cow and fixtures, one wheel and pair of wheels and two seats and the necessary furniture for and during his natural life in case my said wife should survive my widow then my will is that when my youngest son B. shall have arrived at full age that my said wife claim to herself the one hundred acres of land as aforesaid and the balance of my property both real and personal to be equally divided amongst my eight children by my last wife viz: Mary W. Buckley, Stephen L., Maria L., Tolson, Thomas L., Jefferson B. and Franklin B. share and share alike - my will is that my lands shall be let out and divided equally amongst my said children as aforesaid the division should my said wife may so take place immediately thereafter but if she survives my widow then when my youngest son B. arrives at age as aforesaid at the death of my said wife the one hundred acres and the balance of my my money to take place immediately and my will is that the same my youngest son W. B. arrives at age as aforesaid at the death of my said wife the portion allotted both real and personal to him of my estate to be equally divided amongst my three daughters - It is my will that my daughter Maria the youngest give to each of my said children one share such portion when they arrive at age & money as will make them equal with those of my children already advanced to be married & to pay in money as may be most convenient my daughter Mary H. has received one hundred and twenty five dollars to which amount about twenty five dollars is her allotted advancement Maria H. has received properly to the value of one hundred and fifty dollars when she gets her one hundred and fifty dollars - Mary H. has received the value of one hundred and fifty dollars with the exception of a side saddle which she is yet to receive - as to my good children by my first wife being already married and are to receive such portion of property obtained there my instrumentality as will make it make it out of my power to give them any further portion of my estate.

My will is that my executors have the right of holding money and all persons have.

If any of my said children should die before arriving at full
