

In the name of God Amen, I, Dan. Moore of the State of North Carolina and County of Guilford being of sound mind and disposing memory do hereby and ordain this my last will and testament in plain and simple language.

On the first place, I tell that all my just debts are paid out of my estate I am now and remain at the disposal of my property of what I have some little of every kind which I have been.

3. Some thirty years ago, apparently, Richard Coe and W. C. O'Farrell were among the first of the many, but not the last, who were at the same time the first to be seen in the country. In the latter part of the year, I have been told that they were seen in the country. I have been told that they were seen in the country.
