

Thomas Parsons of the County of Guilford and State of North Carolina being of sound mind and Memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last will and Testament in manner and form following that is to say first that my executors hereunto named shall provide for my body a decent Burial suitable to the wishes of my relatives and friends and that they do remove my bones together with my last left belongings and to themselves saving out of the moneys that may just come out hereunto a sum of my estate. Item I owe and do owe to my beloved wife Jane Parsons all that part of her dower which I now live with all the rest and residue of my personal property of every description that is now in my possession to raise her children as with the security that she owned at the time of our marriage. Item I owe to my first wife's children all that part of her dower which she now allमाने took that came to me by my first wife to be equally divided between them all which will make them equal with my last wife and children and lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my truly friend Abraham Smith my lawful Executor to see into and perform to execute this my last will and Testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause thereof. And I hereby do hereby appoint all other wills and Testaments by me hereafter made in

