

43. OFFICE
I William Whaley of Guilford County in the State of North Carolina do make this my last Will and Testament as follows First My Will is that all my just Dues & Funeral charges be paid Second I have to my Beloved wife one feather Bed and furniture and all other articles of House hold and Kitchen furniture that she brought here from her Father and one Cow her Choice of the Stock to her her Heirs & assigns forever Third I have the use & Benefit of all my Estate real & Personal to the Management of my Executors to support the Children and for them to be school'd as well as may be in their Education with that of the Guardians of their Souls Be my will for my Executors to have full power to sell after my death of my Estate make Dells when and in what manner they in their Discretion may think Right Fourth it is my Will that my Wife have the use of such part or all of my Estate as long as she remains my Widow and to keep and school the Children and when a Curator shall appear disposing the Executors may proceed & decide in their judgment so that my Widow may have an equal portion with the Children after they are school'd Besides what is left here in the Second This fifth If any Difference should arise in any matter the Executors are fully authorized to leave the same to arbitration of Curators mine and abide the award sixth I hereby appoint my Beloved Wife Lydia Whaley my Executor and my father John Whaley & my friend Nathaniel Henderson all my Executors & for them to retain as shall make a reasonable compensation for their services Signed sealed & Delivered in presence of us

Richard Johnson, Secy.

Wm. Harris

his William ~~the~~ Charles. (Lear) mark.

State of North Carolina Cumberland County August Term 1893.

The Circulators of the Nelson Well Was Duty sworn in open Court by the Clerk or affirmations of Justice Johnson One of the Subscribing Ministers thereof, or a Notary Public to be Recorded then Came in Nathan Huntington & John Thayer, Two of the Circulators appeared in said Hall and gave said Record accordingly.

John Bruner, del