Hugh Johnson

State of New York, County of Seneca, In the Supreme Court
 The People of the County of Seneca, vs. John H. Page.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Hugh Johnson deceased is exhibited here in the foregoing papers of I report in and counts of C. de Seneca and A. C. de Seneca the deposition taken down in regard and in the presence thereof of the said Hugh Johnson by the said and the deposition of J. H. Miller and H. Johnson the subscribers thereof. And being duly sworn doth depose and say and each of himself separately and jointly that he is a subscribing witness to the said paper writing, now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of Hugh Johnson, that the said Hugh Johnson in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid and which has date on the eighth day of January 1876. And the deponent further saith that the said Hugh Johnson the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing to be subscribed by him to be his last will and testament And the deponent did thereupon and thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto And at the request And in the presence of said testator.

And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid the said Hugh Johnson being sound minded and knowing the contents of said will and was not under any restraint in the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent.

It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of the said Hugh Johnson. It is therefore ordered and adjudged and decreed that the said will be read and shall accordingly be done. And the said C. de Seneca and A. C. de Seneca are duly qualified to execute a said will by taking the oath of office prescribed by law and their testimony duly recorded.
