

North Carolina } In the Probate Court
Henderson County } June 11th 1883.

A paper purporting to be the last will and Testament of James Jimison deceased, is exhibited before me the undersigned, Judge of Probate for said County, by J. L. Jimison the Executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said James Jimison by the oath and examination of M. P. Love and P. C. Stagle the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn doth depose and say and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James Jimison, that the said James Jimison in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the 8th day of July 1883.

And the Deponent further saith That the said James Jimison the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and Testament and this Deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this Deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid the said James Jimison was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a will, and was not was the deponent's father's name. And the said deponent to whom the estate was sold, did at the time of said selling, for some as before said being thereat present writing, & subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, that this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name and his name & the said of and well as an attesting witness thereto, just at the point, and in the presence of the said testator. And the deponent further saith that at the time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will and testament, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing for the same as an attesting witness, that he was and the said deponent is now of sound mind & memory of full age & sound & will that he do not recall any recollection of the foregoing information in either of the deponents. And further these deponents are
