W. H. Pace
 Judge of Probate

Know all men by these presents that I John Colquhoun of the County of Henderson and State of North-Carolina do make and publish this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me made.
 I hereby give devise, and bequeath to my beloved wife Janet Cullen or Colquhoun during her natural life, all my property of whatever kind, Real estate, personal & mixed property, and at her death, the said Real, personal & mixed property, and at her death shall go absolutely to my daughter Jessie Finley Colquhoun to her, her heirs and assigns forever as I hereby devise and bequeath. I hereby constitute and appoint my said wife, the executrix of this my last will & testament and request that she be not required to file any bond or give or make any inventory that I by law have the power to waive.

In witness whereof I have hereunto signed & sealed this instrument, and published and declared the same as and for my last will & testament at Flat Rock N.C. this 14th day of May A.D. 1875
 John Colquhoun Test.

At Flat Rock N.C. on this 14th day of May A.D. 1875 the above named John Colquhoun signed sealed this instrument and published & declared the same to be for and as his last will and testament & we in his presence and at his request & in the presence of each other have hereunto Subscribed our names as witnesses.

R. M. Lanchlan
 Margaret M. Lanchlan
 George W. Lanchlan,

In The Probate Court.
January 14th 1880.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of John Colquhoun is exhibited in Court by Janet Cullen or Colquhoun the executrix therein named, and the due execution by the said John Colquhoun of said will and testament is duly proven by the oath and examination of R. M. Lanchlan and George M. Cullock two of the subscribing witnesses thereto. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of the said John Colquhoun. And the said Janet Cullen or Colquhoun is duly qualified by taking and subscribing to the oath of office prescribed by Law, and Letters Testamentary duly issued -

G. M. Pace. C. S. C., and Judge of Probate.
