

Nancy McKinnon

Thomas King

In the name of God amen. William W Black of the state of North Carolina Fredell County being duly sensible of that mortality to which all men are subject, & being at the time blessed with the due exercise of my reason, memory & Judgment, & esteeming it a privilege to dispose of my property to those nearest related to me in life, do make & ordain, constitute, & declare this to be my last will & Testament, in manner & form following viz after the payment of my just debts I leave to the disposal of my Executors hereafter named the disposal of ~~the~~ my whole estate personal & Real in such manner as may appear to them most advisable, for the support & convenience of my beloved wife Elizabeth Black, & my Children my son "Tom" Vallis Black I allow to be calculated in his part so as to make it equal with his other brother & sisters twenty dollars allowed him by his grand Mother Rebecca Black, to my other two Children male & female & the issue expected from my wife present pregnancy equal dividend, as my Executors may think will best with the circumstances of the estate & their respective convenience. I do further constitute & appoint as executors of this my last will & Testament Elisha Spencer King & Samuel King. in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & affixed my seal this eighth day of May 1812 in presence of

Andro King
Wm Wapson Juror

William W Black