

Will of Nathan Altman

Nathan Altman of the County of Johnston and State of North Carolina being of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following

First - That my executor (hereinafter named) shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my relatives and friends and that my funeral expenses together with my just debts however and to whosoever owing to be paid out of the money that may first come to his hands as a part or parcel of my estate.

Item - I give and devise to my well beloved son Alfred Altman all of my estate both real and personal after my decease to him and his heirs forever except one bed and furniture which I give and bequeath to Gilpha Fair to her and her heirs forever. Further my will and desire is if there should not be enough due me at my decease that my executor sell of my estate to pay all of my just debts and expenses and that all of the debts due me be collected by him and after the settlement of my estate the balance if any be paid over to my son Alfred Altman his heirs executors or administrators. I do hereby constitute and appoint my trusty friend John Eason my lawful executor to all intent and purposes to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause thereof hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all the other wills and testaments by me made. In witness whereof I the said Nathan Altman do hereunto set my hand and seal this the 2nd day of December A.D. 1840 Signed sealed published and declared by the said Nathan Altman to be his last will and testament in presence of us who at his request in his presence and in the presence of each other do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.
