

my executor of this my last will and testament in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 18th day of June in the year of our Lord 1813. Signed sealed published and declared in the presence of us

Mary H. Blackman (seal)

B. Ingram
David H. Smith
Sarah H. Smith

Will of Hardy Batton

In the name of God Amen I Hardy Batton of the County of Johnston being at this time sick but calling unto mind my life I consider that it is appointed for all men to die have thought proper to make my last will and testament in manner and form as follows first it is my will and desire that my loving wife Pasia Batton I give my bed, bedstead and furniture also I give her two sows also I give four two year old hogs also I give her one bay mare also I give five shoats also I give her two basins also I give her three punch bowls also I give her six gether plates also I give her one case of knives and forks also I give her one pot also I give her one dutchoven also I give her one spinning wheel and cards also I give her two axes and also I give her my part of the cattle that I have on stock also I give her as many of my sheep as she wants also I give her all my cotton also I give her her years provisions this I give to her her natural life and her widowhood and after her life or widowhood to my two children their heirs and assigns forever and the rest of my property I leave to be sold to the highest bidder and leave for my executor Abraham Batton and Nathaniel Futrell to settle my estate this is the 16th day of January in the year of our Lord 1815.

Witness
William H. Starling
Lorey H. Starling

Hardy H. Batton (seal)

Johnston County February term 1815

Then was the above will exhibited in open court for probate which was duly proven and ordered to be recorded B. Sanders C. C.

my executor of this my last will and testament in witness
whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 18th day of June in the year of our Lord 1813. Signed sealed published
and declared in the presence of us

Navy H. Blackman (seal)

B. Ingram
David H. Smith
Sarah H. Smith

Will of Hardy Batton

In the name of God Amen I Hardy Batton of the County of Johnston being at this time sick but calling unto mind my life I consider that it is appointed for all men to die have thought proper to make my last will and testament in manner and form as follows first it is my will and desire that my loving wife Patsia Batton I give one bed, bedstead and furniture also I give her two cows also I give four two year old hogs also I give her one bay mare also I give five shoats also I give her two basins also I give her three punch bowls also I give her six yethen plates also I give her one case of knives and forks also I give her one pot also I give her one dutchoven also I give her one spinning wheel and cards also I give her two axes and also I give her my part of the cattle that I have on stock also I give her as many of my sheep as she wants also I give her all my cotton also I give her her years provisions this I give to her her natural life and her widowhood and after her life or widowhood to my two children their heirs and assigns forever and the rest of my property I leave to be sold to the highest bidder and leave for my executors Abraham Batton and Nathaniel Puttall to settle my estate this is the 16th day of January in the year of our Lord 1815.

Witness

William H. Starling
Lovey H. Starling

Hardy H. Batton (seal)

Johnston County February term 1815

Then was the above will exhibited in open court of probate which was duly proven and ordered to be recorded
R. Sanders C. C.