Will of George Adams

In the name of God Amen I George Adams of the County of Johnston and State of North Carolina of sound disposing mind and memory declare my last will and testament in manner and form following (No will)

Item¹ I give to my son Sir William B. Adams one negro man by the name of Virgil, one negro boy by the name of Harry one set of blacksmiths tools all my carpenters tools to him and his heirs forever.

Item² I lend to my beloved wife Eleanor all my lands and the following negroes namely George, Lucy Jackson, Sarah Gabriel, Julia, Haywood & Charity, for and during the term of her natural life and after her death I give the said land and negroes to my son William B. Adams and his heirs forever.

Item³ It is my will that the debt due me be collected out of which my just debts be paid and the balance of the monies remaining to be equally divided between my beloved wife and my son Sir William B. Adams also my flock of sheep to be equally divided in the same manner.

Item⁴ I give to my beloved wife Eleanor all the balance of my property, goods, & effects of whatsoever kind and nature not above described to her and her heirs forever and do hereby constitute and appoint my son Sir William B. Adams executor of this my last will and testament.

Whereas by the last will of Hardy Adams deceased he directs his executor to collect monies due him from the hands and pay the same to Horatio Griffin or his representatives reserving the interest - and ten per cent - and I the executor proceed to collect and advance to the said Horatio Griffin who was then living in Tennessee the sum of eighty dollars true I hold his receipt - for $100 but there was not but 80 remitted as will appear by certificate in his letter and as soon as I collected the balance I addressed several letters to him in succession with a view of closing my duties as executor but received no answer. I verbally understood that he had removed further west - but have not been able to learn by letter or otherwise where he is and now it is my desire that my executor account of the monies in hand or the proceeds of my estate remit the balance which is fifty dollars paying no interest - thereon to the said Horatio Griffin or his representatives however
