

Henry Sasser executor to this my last will and testament is witness whereof I the said Lewis Grace have to this my last will and testament set my hand and seal the day and year above written. Signed sealed published and declared by the said Lewis Grace the testator as his last will and testament in the presence of us who were present at the time of signing and sealing thereof
Heardly Heinnant-
William Kenfow
Gesse Heinnant-

Johnston County February term 1810
Then was the above will exhibited in open court which was duly proven and ordered to be recorded.
R. Sanders Ck.

Will of Joseph Langston.

In the name of God Amen I Joseph Langston Jr of the County of Johnston in the State of North Carolina being weak in body but of sound and perfect mind and memory blessed be God and calling to mind the mortality of the body that it is appointed for all flesh once to die do this 27th day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nine make publick satisfy establish and ordain this and no other to be my last will and testament and first of all I recommend my soul to God, who gave it nothing doubting but I shall receive it again in the morning of the general resurrection where soul and body will be united and my body to the dust to be buried in a christian like manner at the discretion of my executors hereafter named as to touching my worldly estate that it hath pleased Almighty God to bless me with in this life I dispose of in manner ^{and form} following, viz first my will is that all my just debts and funeral charges be satisfied and paid.

Item I give and bequeath unto my dear and well beloved wife Bathsheba Langston all the property she was possessed with before I was married to her to be disposed of as she shall in her own judgement think proper to her and her heirs forever also I lend to my well beloved wife Bathsheba all my land and plantation that I am now possessed with during her natural life after her decease to belong to my son Joseph Langston Jr to him and his heirs forever. Also I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Bathsheba two cows and calves one of the cows with a small white in her face the other red with a white face and two heifers one of them mostly white the other is a pided color and one work steer and as much of my crop stock and provisions as will be sufficient for her support one year.

Item I give and bequeath to my son Joseph Langston Jr my grandsons William and Isaac McShawhan all the rest of my property to be equally divided between them to them and their heirs forever with all debts and demands due me to be equally divided as afore stated between Joseph Langston Jr William McShawhan and Isaac McShawhan to them and their heirs forever and I do hereby make constitute and appoint establish and ordain my trusty friend Samuel Lee Jr my executor of this my last will and testament in witness whereof I have hereunto

Henry Sasser executor to this my last will and testament in witness whereof & the said Lewis Grice have to this
my last will and testament set my hand and seal the
day and year above written. Signed sealed published and declared by the said Lewis Grice the testator as his last will and testament in the presence of us who were present at the time of signing and sealing
thereof
Nehemiah Hinman-
William Wenzel
Jesse Hinman-

Johnston County February term 1810
Then was the above will exhibited in open court
which was duly proven and ordered to be recorded.
R. Sanders Ck.

Will of Joseph Langston.

In the name of God Amen I Joseph Langston Jr of the County of Johnston in the State of North Carolina being weak in body but of sound and perfect mind and memory blessed
be God and calling to mind the mortality of the body
that it is appointed for all flesh once to die do this 27th day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nine make publick satisfy establish
and ordain this and no other to be my last will and
testament and first of all I recommend my soul to God
who gave it nothing doubting but I shall receive it again
in the morning of the general resurrection where soul and body
will be united and my body to the dust to be buried in
a christian like manner at the discretion of my executors
hereafter named as to touching my worldly estate that
it hath pleased Almighty God to bless me with in this life I dispose of in manner ^{and form} following, my first my will is that all my just debts and funeral charges be satisfied
and paid.

Item I give and bequeath unto my dear and well beloved wife Bathsheba Langston all the property she was possessed with
before I was married to her to be disposed of as she shall
in her own judgement think proper to her and her heirs
forever also I lend to my well beloved wife Bathsheba all
my land and plantation that I am now possessed with during
her natural life after her decease to belong to my son Joseph Langston Jr to him and his heirs forever. Also I give and bequeath
to my beloved wife Bathsheba two cows and calves one of the
cows with a small white in her face the other red
with a white face and two heifers one of them mostly white the other is a pided color and one awake steer and as much of my crop stock and provisions as will be sufficient
for her support one year.

Item I give and bequeath to my son Joseph Langston Jr my grandsons William and Isaac McPherson all the rest of my property to be equally divided between them to them and their
heirs forever with all debts and demands due me to be equally
divided as afore stated between Joseph Langston Jr William McPherson and Isaac McPherson to them and their heirs forever and I do hereby make constitute and appoint establish and
ordain my trusty friend Samuel Lee Jr my executor of this
my last will and testament in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written signed sealed and delivered in the presence of us

James Lee Jr
Sam Lee.

Johnston County May term 1810
Then was the above will exhibited in open court and ordered to be recorded.
R. Sanders C. J. C.

22
Will of William McElwahan In the name of God Amen I William McElwahan Jr of the County of Johnston in the State of North Carolina, being weak in body but of sound and perfect mind and memory blessed be God and calling to mind the mortality of the body that it is appointed for all men once to die do this the 25th of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight-hundred and ten make publick satisfy establish and ordain this and no other to be my last will and testament - first of all I recommend my soul to God who gave it - nothing doubting but I shall receive it again in the morning of the general resurrection where soul and body will unite and my body to the dust to be buried in a Christian like manner at the discretion of my executors hereafter named as touching my worldly estate that it hath pleased Almighty God to bless me with in this life I dispose of in manner and form following viz; first my will is that all my just debts and funeral charges be satisfied and paid

Item I give and bequeath unto my beloved aunt Susanah Langston all my stock of cattle to her and her heirs and assigns forever

Item I give and bequeath unto my beloved friend John Wade my smoothed bored gun to him and his heirs forever and I do thereby make constitute and appoint establish and ordain my trusty friend Joseph Langston Jr executor of this my last will and testament - in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year above written signed sealed and delivered in presence of Samuel Lee Jr
Henry ^{Jr} Harrell
William McElwahan (seal)

Johnston County May term 1810 Then was the above will exhibited in open court which was duly proven and ordered to be recorded.
R. Sanders C. J. C.