Will of John Wilder

In the name of God Amen I John Wilder of the County of Johnston and State of North Carolina being very sick and weak but in perfect mind and memory thanks be given unto God, calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing it is appointed for all men to die do make and ordain this my last will and Testament that is to say principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul unto the hands of the Almighty God that gave it and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in decent christian burial at the discretion of my executors nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same the same again by the mighty power of God and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life I give and demise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form.

First I give and bequeath to Cally my beloved wife all my lands so long as she lives single and if she should marry then to have her dower laid as the law direct the same as though there had been no will the said dower to have and to hold unto her my well beloved wife so long as she lives together with all my household goods and movable effects except one bed to my beloved daughter Niecey and furniture to be delivered to her after she marries in case she should die before married the said bed and furniture to belong to my beloved son David. I also give to Cally my dearly beloved wife one bay mare named Bounce as her right and property to do as she pleases with also I give to my well beloved daughter Niecey sixty acres of land a part of the said land purchased by Robert Whittington lying rather to the north of said tract joining Joseph Frost's land, may be known by the old lines this to belong to her after the death or marriage of my wife but so long as she may live single she is to have the benefit and privilege of the land to do with as she may think proper but to maintain my two children until they become of age or marry also I give to her as much of my stock and crop as will plentifully support her and the family for one year also I give to her three cows and calves to apply to her own use and benefit so long as she lives the balance of my stock crop and horses to be sold and after paying my debts the balance after giving two hundred and seventy dollars to my daughter Niecey which is to make her part equal to my son David then if any remainder be left it is to be divided between my
