

Will of Nathaniel Giles.

In the name of God Amen. I Nathaniel Giles of Johnston County in the State of North Carolina, being in tolerable health and perfect mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament that is to say,

First- I give devise and bequeath to my son William Giles the land and plantation whereon I live containing one hundred acres of land and a tract of land joining the said land whereon I live lying on the south side of Middle Creek containing one hundred and five acres being the same which I bought of my son John Giles as appears by a deed from him to me bearing date the sixth day of January one thousand seven hundred and eighty two with all and singular their appurtenances to him and his heirs and assigns forever.

Secondly I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Charity Giles all my household furniture of every kind, my plantation tools and all my stock of horses, hogs, cattle, sheep and fowls to her and her heirs forever. I also lend to my beloved wife the plantation whereon I live with the privilege of making use of what timber may be necessary for the support and repairs of the houses fences and other necessary uses during her natural life after which it is to inure to my son William as above mentioned.

Thirdly It is my will and desire that my land on Lasecaier containing three hundred and twenty acres be sold by my executors at public sale at twelve months credit and the money from such sale after collected, to be equally divided among my children.

Lastly I do hereby nominate ordain constitute and appoint my beloved wife Charity Giles and my son John Giles my executor and executrix of this my last will and testament revoking all other or former wills by me made. In witness whereof I the said Nathaniel Giles hereunto set my hand and seal the thirtieth day of April Anno Domini one thousand, seven hundred, and ninety. Signed, sealed, published, pronounced, and declared by the said Nathaniel Giles to be his last will and testament in the presence of us

Hardy Bryan
William Ward

Nathaniel Giles (seal)