

and appoint Samuel Smith and Zachariah Oneal my executors of this my last will and testament. Who I desire may receive the different sums of money due to me also out of the same to pay my debts also to sell all my corn, pork and beef that is over support for my family one year and do hereby utterly disallow disavow and revoke all and every other former testament will or legacy and bequest and executors by me in anywise before named willed or requested, ratified and confirming this and no other to be my last will and testament in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this ninth day of October 1790.

Signed sealed declared and pronounced by the said James Houlders as his last will and testament in presence of us the witnesses

J. Holliman
Thomas Puder
Jos. Broughton

James Houlders

Will of William Fish

In the name of God Amen. I William Fish of Johnston County in the State of North Carolina make this my last will and testament as follows to wit, I bequeath to my beloved wife the Manner plantation where I now live during her life or widowhood. I also bequeath to her a negro wench named Phillis during her life or widowhood, and at her death or marriage the said negro wench ^{may} be sold and the money arising therefrom to be equally divided between all my daughters. I also give my wife four cows and calves also one gang of hogs called the Grate Branch hogs, two feather beds and furniture, one bay horse known by the name Jack as well as all my household and kitchen furniture.

I give to my son John all of my land lying on Middle Creek in the County and State aforesaid, excepting two hundred acres joining Richards, Whittington and son Wright-Lanes it being the land I have sold to John Bauckham also one black mare as well as my bridle and saddle. I desire that a negro fellow named Hercules be sold and the money arising therefrom to be equally divided between my two daughters to wit Sally Collins and Abby. I also desire that all the remainder part of my property consisting of cattle, hogs and one mare also with the debts due be made use to discharge my debts.

I give to my son James one negro boy named, Ben and in case any thing be left therefrom after paying my debts overplus to be equally divided between Solomon Ebals, Son Wright my son John and Rexas Collins.

I give to Rexas Collins one cow and calf and lastly I do nominate, constitute and appoint my wife Sarah Eliza Leach and Edward Stevens my executors of this my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void other wills by me heretofore made, in witness whereof I here unto set my hand and affixed my seal this eleventh day of March 1791 Signed, sealed, published, pronounced and declared by the testator to be and contain his last will and testament in presence of us who is present in the presence of each other have subscribed our name as witnesses

William Fish (seal)

Ephraim ^{his} Williams
Elizabeth ^{make} Williams
Elizabeth ^{make} Smith