

I Cathern Westbrook of the County of Jones and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following that is to say:
 First That my Executor (hereinafter named) shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my relations and friends, and pay all funeral expenses together with my just debts hereover and to whomsoever owing out of the moneys that may first come into his hands as a part or parcel of my Estate.

Item. I give and devise to my uncle John R. Oliver and Mary Oliver his wife all moneys & notes and all other species of property that I now own or may hereafter fall to me by the death of any of my relations Reserving my life Estate in all the above.

And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my trusty friend William A Cox my lawful Executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last Will and Testament according to the true intents and meaning of the same, and every part and Clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other Wills and Testaments by me heretofore made.

In Witness whereof I the said Cathern Westbrook do hereunto set my hand And Seal this 15th day of April A D 1852 Signed, Sealed publish- ed, and declared by the said Cathern Westbrook to be the last Will and Testament in the presence of two, who at her request and in her presence do subscribe our names as Witnesses thereto.

State of North Carolina, Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions
 Jones County, November Term A D 1852

There was the Last Will and Testament of Cathern Westbrook presented in Open Court for probate. When Emory Morris one of the subscribers thereto being solemnly sworn upon the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God, proved the same in due form of law, and ordered to be registered. And at the same time William A Cox the Executor therein named came into Court and qualified as such and letters testamentary ordered to issue to him.
