

I Daniel Griffith Very Sick & Weak But having my paper I now I thought men on Do best to write that I was Once sick & spent for all men to live & give up my Soul and Body to him that give it In the Name of God Amen
I have I give to my son William Griffith my Plow and Harrow also a Gun One one fether Dick and Bales - I have I have and give to my Daughter Esther Griffith one head and Furniture a good Wheel and Bards one hat also ten shillings I have I have and give to my Daughter Deborah Griffith one cap, cloth a pair of and perhaps a Long water Dill one fether Bards one tie hat I have I have and give to my Daughter Sarah Griffith one pot and footbath and a shawl and a little Bills one better Dill I have I have and give to my Daughter Ruth the best that I have a tin that one Hat. I have I have and give to my son John one Bow Die or and furniture and and good I have I have and give to my son John one Bow Pride and Saddle - All I have all the Rest of my down had goods to be have and out of my two I have my son William or in the care of my son William Griffith to manage of the estate for the good of the children I remember the first of James Hall
Witness his hand and

John May

James H. Smith
 Edmund Howard
 E. W. Smith

In the Name of god Amen The Sixth 1776 Day of July I Thomas Dubauk, planter of perfect mind and memory, sheweth to god for it: therefore calling to mind the making of my body and knowing that is appointed for all men once to dye to make life and ordain the my last will and Testament that is today from upally and first of all I give and bequeath my soul into the hands of god that gave it and my body I bequeath to the earth to be buried in Decent Christian burial at the Discretion of my Executors nothing Doubting but at the general Resurrection I shall Receive the same by the Mighty power of god as Touch my soul and body do it both please god to bless me with a quiet and Divine and Disposer in the manner and form as followeth I give and bequeath unto my dear beloved wife Rachel Dubauk a certain share of my plantation and wood and Timber to support it During the Term of her Natural life - and to my well beloved son Thomas I give and bequeath a certain Tract of Land bounded