In the name of God Amen, I Frederick Taylor of the County of Jones and State of North Carolina being of sound mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, do therefore make, ordain publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, that is to say, first after all my lawful debts are paid, and discharged my real and personal estate I give and bequeath and dispose of as follows, to wit: To my beloved wife Ann Bay Moore also One Cow. To my son Jackson One Cow. To my son Joseph One dark Bay Colt, and also One Bed and One Table. To my daughter Peter Ann One Table, and also to my son Joseph One Cow: and also to my beloved wife two Beds.

I give bequeath and devise all the rest residue and remainder of my real and personal estate to my Child now living, or to my Children or their heirs who may be living at the time of my decease, to be divided equally between them share and share alike. I likewise make constitute and appoint my said son Jackson, Executor of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me made.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my Seal the ninth day of March A.D. One thousand eight hundred and fifty five.

The above written instrument was subscribed by the said Frederick Taylor in our presence and acknowledged each of us and he at the same time published and declared the above instrument to be his last Will and Testament, and we at the instant request and in his presence have signed our names as Wits. & these facts and written affixes our names our respective places of residence.
