January Term A.D. 1858

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Lewis Williams deceased with Codicil annexed is exhibited in open Court by Arctus Williams the only executor therein named, and the due execution thereof by the said Lewis Williams is proved by the oath and examination of William H. Washington and Thompson & Little the subscribing witnesses thereto and by the oath and examination of E. S. F. Giles and A. C. Grady subscribing witnesses to the Codicil thereto. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of the said Lewis Williams, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.
