tament of R. M. King, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Judge of Probate for said County, by Anthony Davis, one of the Executors therein named, and the due execution thereof by the said R. M. King by the oath and examination of N. O. Hyatt and Wm. E. Clarke two of the subscribing witnesses thereto (the other subscribing witness Elisha Grady) being dead) who being duly sworn do soth do so and say, each for himself do soth and saith that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of said R. M. King, deceased; that the said R. M. King, deceased, in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of the said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date 18th day of August, 1880.

And the deponent further saith that the said R. M. King the testator aforesaid, died, at the time of subscribing his name, as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator.

And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will, as aforesaid, and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name, as aforesaid, as an attesting witness ther-to, as aforesaid, the said R. M. King was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not any restraint to the knowledge information or belief this deponent: And further these deponents say not.
