

death; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to wit: Jessie Jackson, Allen Croom, and Rufus H. Temple that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said C. S. Croom, having often seen him write and verily believe that the name of the said C. S. Croom subscribed to the said will, and the said will itself, and every part thereof are in the handwriting of the said C. S. Croom. And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said C. S. Croom.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said C. S. Croom, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

April 10, 1876.

W. H. Hunter
Probate Judge.

I, Charles S. Croom, of the State of North Carolina, Lewis County, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following (that is to say): after paying my funeral expenses, and all just debts. First I give and bequeath unto my Niece Harriet H. Temple, for the love and affection I have for her, my writing desk, and small bureau, and all my books and papers except my school books.

Item: I give and bequeath unto my kind and faithful Nurse Mary Ann Grady, as a token of my appreciation of the many services rendered me by her all my real estate, consisting of all my houses and lands, also all my personal property consisting, consisting of household and kitchen furniture, Horses, Cows, Hogs, Masts, and all my other property of any and every kind whatever, after excepting such as has already been disposed of to have, and to hold and to enjoy the benefit thereof during her natural life, and then the same to go to her children, John C. and James H. Grady, who shall in like manner enjoy the benefits to be derived therefrom, during their natural life, provided they shall drop the name 'Grady' and assume the name 'Croom' instead thereof, and then to their male children, and in case of their decease without male issue, the same to go to my Brother William A. Croom male linea-

It is my will and desire that the said Mary Ann Grady, shall take immediately in charge all my property left by me, and shall deliver to my Niece Harriet H. Temple such as I have given her, in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 20th day of February A. D. 1875, in the presence of A. B. Smith, and upon whom I call to witness the same.
