

containing seventy-five acres more or less, to have and to hold, to him, my said husband, his heirs and assigns forever. I also give and devise to my said husband, Henry H. Moore, any and all other lands, tenements or hereditaments I may own or possess, and any and all other lands, tenements or hereditaments that may hereafter descend or come to me, or which I may in any manner hereafter acquire, and of which I may die seized or possessed, to have and to hold to him, his heirs and assigns in fee simple forever.

And, lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my beloved husband, Henry H. Moore, my lawful Executor of this my last will and testament, to execute every part and clause thereof, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, hereby revoking and declaring utterly null and void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In testimony whereof, I, Ida H. Moore, wife of Henry H. Moore, have herunto set my hand and seal this second day of February, 1883.

Ida H. Moore. (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Ida H. Moore to be her last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at her request and in her presence subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

Jas. H. Davis
J. R. Jackson.

Probate.

State of North Carolina, } Superior Court,
Lenoir County. } October 10, 1885.

The foregoing paper writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Ida H. Moore, deceased, is exhibited for probate before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by Henry H. Moore, the Executor therein named, and the due execution thereof by the said Ida H. Moore, is proved by the oath and examination of Jas. H. Davis and J. R. Jackson, the subscribing witnesses thereto. It is, therefore, considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper-writing, and every part and clause thereof is the last will and testament of the said Ida H. Moore, and the same as such, is ordered to be recorded and filed. And thereupon the said Henry H. Moore, Executor as aforesaid, duly qualifies as such by taking the oath required by law, whereupon letters testamentary, with a copy of said will, are issued to him.

W. H. Hume, C. S. C.

Enrolled in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Lenoir County, the 10th day of October, 1885.

W. H. Hume, C. S. C.
W. H. Hume, D. C.

Crawford D. Barwick

Application

of
Haney A. Barwick
for
Letters Testamentary

State of North Carolina, } Superior Court,
Lenoir County. }

In the matter of the will of } Before
Crawford D. Barwick. } W. H. Hume, C. S. C.

Haney A. Barwick, being duly sworn, doth say: That Crawford D. Barwick, late of said county, is dead, having first made and published his last will and testament, with a codicil thereto; and that Haney A. Barwick is the Executrix named therein.

Further, that the property of the said Crawford D. Barwick consisting of Real Estate and Personal Property is worth about $6000.00, so far as can be ascertained at the date of this application; and that Haney A. Barwick is the party entitled under said will and codicil to the said property.

Haney A. Barwick

Sworn to and subscribed
before me this 20th day of
November, 1885.
W. H. Hume, C. S. C.

Examination
of Witnesses.

State of North Carolina, } In the Superior Court,
Lenoir County. }

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament, with a codicil thereto, of Crawford D. Barwick, deceased, is exhibited before the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court of said county, by Haney A. Barwick, the Executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Crawford D. Barwick is proved by the oath and examination of E. J. Brooks and J. E. Harper, the subscribing witnesses thereto.

who being duly sworn doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and say that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing, and codicils, now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament and codicils thereto, of Leaven D. Barwick; that the said Leaven D. Barwick, in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, and codicils thereto, which are now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 26th day of June, 1885, and the 31st day of October, 1885.

And the deponent further saith that the said Leaven D. Barwick, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing, and codicils so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament; and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will and codicils as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said will and codicils as aforesaid, and the time of deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid, the said Leaven D. Barwick was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

E. J. Brooks (Sd)
J. E. P. Harper (Sd)

Severally sworn and subscribed }
this 26th day of November 1885,
before me.

W. H. Hume, C. S. C.

State of North Carolina, } In the Superior Court.
Lenoir County.

I, Nancy S. Barwick, do solemnly swear that I believe these writings to be and contain the last will and testament and codicils thereto of Leaven D. Barwick, deceased; and that I will well and truly execute the same by first paying his debts and then his legacies as far as the said estate shall extend & the law will charge me; and that I will well and faithfully execute the office of an executrix agreeably to the trust and confidence reposed in me and according to law. Subscribed
Nancy S. Barwick

Sworn and subscribed before me }
this 26th day of November, 1885.
W. H. Hume, C. S. C.

The Will.

State of North Carolina, }
Lenoir County.

I, Leaven D. Barwick, of Lenoir County, State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is, to say -

First that my Executrix (hereinafter named) shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my relatives and friends, and pay all funeral expenses together with my just debts, however and to whomsoever owing out of the moneys that may first come into her hands as a part and parcel of my estate.

Item 1st. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Nancy S. Barwick, all of my real estate, together with all my personal property, during her natural life, unless she should again marry, and at the expiration of her natural life, or at the expiration of her widowhood, as the case may be, it is my wish and desire that all of my property both real and personal shall be equally divided between my surviving children; and it is my will and desire that my beloved wife shall have the right cut down and clear as much land for farming purposes as she may desire, and the further right to cut such timber off of said lands as she may wish for the benefit of the family.

And, lastly. I do hereby constitute and appoint my true and trusty wife Nancy S. Barwick my lawful Executrix to see intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same; and I do hereby revoke and declare utterly void all other wills heretofore made by me.

In witness whereof I do hereunto set my hand and seal this June 26th, 1885

Leaven D. Barwick (Sd)

Signed, sealed, sealed, published and declared by Leaven D. Barwick to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

E. J. Brooks
J. E. P. Harper

Each of the Executors

Whereas, I, C. D. Barwick, have made my last will and testament in writing bearing date on the 26th day of June, 1885, and have thereby made sundry devises and bequest according to the then existing circumstances of my estate, but which circumstances having been materially changed, I do, by this, which I declare to be a codicil to my said will, to be taken and construed as part thereof, will and direct that my said wife, Sancy A. Barwick, who I have made Executrix in my said will shall have the right, and I hereby empower her as Executrix to my said will to sell the tract of land known as the Barney Phillips land, or so much of it as will be necessary to pay the debts that have been created by myself during my lifetime, provided, however, that if said debts can be settled out of my personal property, or the proceeds from the same, then such sale is not to be made, but my will bearing date June 26th, 1885, to be executed in full to all intents and purposes; and the object of this codicil is to give my said wife the right to make such sale, if she should think best.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal the 31st day of October, 1885.

C. D. Barwick (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said C. D. Barwick to be a codicil or part of his last will and testament in presence of us, who, at his request, and in his presence, and the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

E. J. Brooks
J. E. F. Harper

North Carolina, } Superior Court,
Lenoir County, } November 26, 1885.

The foregoing paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of C. D. Barwick, and a codicil thereto, are exhibited for probate, before me, the undersigned, Clerk of said Court by Sancy A. Barwick, the Executrix therein named, and the due execution thereof by the said C. D. Barwick is proved by the oath and examination of E. J. Brooks and J. E. F. Harper, the subscribing witnesses to each of said papers-writing. It is therefore, confirmed and adjudged by the Court that the said papers-writing, and every part and clause thereof are the last will and testament, and codicil thereto, of the said C. D. Barwick, and the same, as such, are ordered to be recorded and filed. And thereupon the said Sancy A. Barwick, Executrix, as aforesaid, duly qualifies as such by taking the oath required; whereupon Letters Testamentary, with copies of said will and codicil, are issued to her.

W. H. Hunn, C. S. C.

Enrolled in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Lenoir County the 26th day of November, 1885.

W. H. Hunn, C. S. C.
W. H. Hunter, D. C.

Margaret Cunningham

Application

of

Asa M. Coay
for
Letters Testamentary

State of North Carolina, }
Lenoir County. }

In the matter of the last will } Before
of Margaret Cunningham. } W. H. Hunn, C. S. C.

Asa M. Coay, being duly sworn, says:

That Margaret Cunningham, late of said County, is dead, having first made and published her last will and testament; and that Asa M. Coay is the executor named therein.

Further, that the property of the said Margaret Cunningham, consisting of one house and lot in the town of Sta. George, N. C., is worth about $500, so far as can be ascertained at the date of this application, and that Clara Williams M. Coay, Fannie M. Coay, William Thomas Corns, and William A. Williams are the parties entitled under said will to the said property.

Asa M. Coay

Sworn to and subscribed
before me the 17th day of
November, 1885.

W. H. Hunn, C. S. C.

Examination
of Witnesses.

State of North Carolina, } In the Superior Court.
Lenoir County. }

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Margaret Cunningham, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Asa M. Coay the Executor therein mentioned, and who has execution thereof by the said Margaret Cunningham.