The Will

I, Cynthia Gunn, of the county of Lenoir and state of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say:—

1st. That my executor hereinafter to be named shall provide for my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my family and friends, and erect over my grave a tomb-stone suitable to the wishes of my family and friends, and pay all my funeral expenses together with my just debts out of the moneys that may come into his hands as a part and parcel of my estate.

2nd. I give and bequeath to my beloved son, W. W. Gunn, all of my cattle and sheep of every description, all of my silver tea and table spoons, my book case and my horse, to have and to hold to him absolutely and forever.

3rd. I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter Susan C. Nicol, one bed.

4th. I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter Theresa F. Chadwick, one bed.

5th. I give and bequeath to my beloved granddaughter, Gertrude Pagby, one pair of brass andirons and one pair of shovel and tongs the same I loaned to my beloved daughter, Mrs. M. G. Pagby.

6th. I give and bequeath to my beloved granddaughter, Martha F. Hardy, my buggy.

7th. I give and bequeath to my three beloved daughters Susan C. Nicol, Theresa F. Chadwick, and Martha

Countrie to be equally divided between them; share and share alike, whatever may be due to me at my death on two promissory notes, or bond executed by Dr. Henry Tull to me, one for three hundred dollars dated October the 10th, 1853, the other for the sum of four hundred dollars dated November the 20th, 1853, to have and to hold to them absolutely and forever.

8th. I give and bequeath to my three beloved daughters, Susan C. Nicol, Theresa F. Chadwick, and Martha F. J. Countrie, all of my property of every kind and description not herein otherwise disposed of, consisting of household and kitchen furniture &c. to be equally divided between them, share and share alike, to have and to hold to them, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns forever.

9th. I hereby constitute and appoint my grandson, Dr. Henry Tull, of the county of Lenoir in the state of North Carolina my lawful executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In testimony whereof I the said Cynthia Gunn do hereunto set my hand and seal on this 11th day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty four (1884)
