A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Demaris Whitfield, deceased, is exhibited before me by W. K. Whitfield, the executor, and the due execution thereof by the said deceased is proved by the oath and examination of George L. Taylor and Jane Fields, the witnesses thereto, who, each, being duly sworn, say, that they are subscribing witnesses to said paper writing now shown them as aforesaid, that the said Demaris Whitfield in the presence of these deponents, subscribed at the end of said paper writing, shown above as aforesaid, bearing date Oct 10, 1879. And the deponents further say, that the said deceased, did, at the time of signing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing to be her last will and testament, and these deponents did thereupon subscribe their names at the end of said will as attesting witnesses thereto, at the request and in the presence of said deceased. And the said deponents further say, that at the said time when the said deceased did subscribe her name to the said will as aforesaid, at the time of the deponents signing the same as witnesses aforesaid, the said deceased was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge or information of these deponents. And further these deponents say not. Sworn to and subscribed before me, Dec. 5, 1879.

Probate Judge.

Lenoir County Probate Court, Dec. 5, 1879

On reading and considering the application of William K. Whitfield to admit a paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Demaris Whitfield, deceased, to probate, and to be qualified as executor thereof, according to the appointment thereby made, and having examined on oath Jane Fields and Geo. L. Taylor, the subscribing witnesses thereto, as to the execution thereof; It is adjudged that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said Demaris Whitfield, dec'd, and the same as such is ordered to be recorded and filed.

And thereupon William K. Whitfield, the executor aforesaid, comes forward and takes and subscribes the following oath:

State of North Carolina,

I, William K. Whitfield, do solemnly swear, that I believe this writing to be and contain the last will and Testament of Demaris Whitfield, dec'd, and that I will well and truly execute the same by first paying her debts and then her legacies, as far as the said estate shall extend or the law will charge me; and that I will well and faithfully execute the office of an executor, agreeable to the trust and confidence reposed in me, and according to law, so help me God.

Sworn and subscribed before me, this 5th day of Dec., 1879.

W. H. Hunter.

Probate Judge.

whereupon Letters testamentary are issued to the said W. K. Whitfield as executor of the said last will & testament.

W. H. Hunter, Prob. Jdg.

I, Demaris Whitfield, of the County of Lenoir and state of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and forme following, that is to say:

First, that my executor hereinafter named shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my relations and friends and pay all funeral expenses together with my just debts to whomsoever owing, out of the moneys that may first come into his hands as a part or parcel of my estate.

Item 2nd. I give and devise to my beloved sons Thomas J. Whitfield, William K. Whitfield and George R. Whitfield all my lands and tenements with this distinct understanding that the said Thomas J. Whitfield, William K. Whitfield and George R. Whitfield pay to each of my daughters the following sums of money, that is to say, they shall pay to my beloved daughter Elizabeth Fields, the wife of Samuel Fields the sum of two hundred dollars, and to my beloved daughter, Sarah E. Fields the wife of L. H. Fields the sum of two hundred dollars, and to my beloved daughter, Alice A. V. Fields, wife of W. S. Fields, two hundred dollars, and to my beloved daughter Demaris B. Whitfield two hundred dollars. Now, therefore if my said sons shall fail to pay over the said sums of two hundred dollars to each of my daughters as named above then my will and desire is that my said daughters shall share equally in all of my said lands with my said sons.

Item 3rd. My will and desire is that my said sons Thomas J. William K. and George R. Whitfield pay annually to my beloved daughter Demaris B. Whitfield forty dollars during her singleness or until she becomes twenty years of age.

Item 4th. I give to my beloved daughter, Demaris B. Whitfield two beds and all the necessary furniture, to the same, one folding leaf table (small one) one long looking glass in parlor.

Item 5th. I give one bed to my sons Thomas J. William K. and George R. Whitfield, and all the bed clothing to be equally divided between them.

Item 6th. I give my beloved daughter, Demaris B. Whitfield one white back cow and calf.

Item 7th. My will and desire is that all my stock of every description not otherwise disposed of at the time of my death be equally between my beloved sons Thomas J. William K. and George R. Whitfield. I also give you a fine looking the one used by them for shaving purposes.

Item 8th. I give to my beloved daughter Alice A. V. Fields
one work stand.

And lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my son William K. Whitfield my lawful executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament
according to the true meaning and intent of the same and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking all other will and testaments by me made.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal
this the tenth day of Oct., 1879.

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of James Davis, deceased, is exhibited before me by David S. Davis, the Executor, and the due execution thereof, of said deceased is proved by the oath and examination of M. E.
Robinson and Ella Miller, the subscribing witnesses thereto;
who being sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself, deposeth and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of James Davis, dec'd, that the said James Davis in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the tenth day of February, 1879.

And the deponent further saith that the said James Davis
the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and testament. And this deponent did, thereupon, subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request, and in presence of said testator.

And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said
last will, as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, the said
James Davis was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information, or belief of this deponent.
