A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Henry H. Moon deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigne, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by W.W. Canady the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Henry H. Moon by the oath and examination of James K. Davis and John P. Grubbe Two of the Subscribing Witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn doth depose and say, and each for himself deponeth and saith that he is a Subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of Henry H. Moon that the said Henry H. Moon, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 15th day of October 1886.

And the deponent further saith, that the said Henry H.
Moon the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare, the said paper writing to be subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request, one in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the said time when the said testator exhibited his name to the last will as aforesaid, and at that of deponents subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Henry H. Moore was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.

The Will

I Henry H. Moore of the State of North Carolina and County of Lincoln being of sound mind and memory but Considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this to be my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say.

First, It is my will and desire that my executor herein after named shall out of the first monies that may come in to his hands as a part or parcel of my estate, pay off and discharge all my just debts together with my funeral expenses including a nice tomb stone to be placed at my grave.

Second, It is my will and desire that my executor herein after named shall sell all my personal property at public vendue as soon as possible after my death and hold the same to be disposed of as herein directed.

Third. It is my will and desire that all my property both real and personal shall go and descend to my beloved daughter Ida F. Moore to her her heirs forever; but should my said daughter Ida F. Moore die without heirs of her body then it is my will and desire that my said executor shall sell all my property, both real and personal as in his judgment may be best.

Fourth. It is my will and desire that should my daughter Ida F. Moore die without issue of her body then my executor shall out of the proceeds of the sale of my real and personal property pay the following legacies to wit:

I give and bequeath to James H. Cannaday son of B. W. Cannaday the sum of two thousand dollars I give and bequeath to Thomas S. Swan C. Neffham P. Albert J. and James H. Phillips children of Drew Phillips the sum of one thousand dollars each all the above legacies to depend on the life of my daughter or her death without issue.

Fifth. Should my daughter Ida F. Moore die without issue and the amount from the sale of my property be greater than the amount of legacies, then it is my will and desire that all the rest and residue of my estate shall be equally divided between all the above named legatees, share and share alike, and lastly

I hereby constitute and appoint my trusted friend B. W. Cannaday my lawful executor to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning thereof and every part and clause of the same.

I hereby constitute and appoint my said friend B. W. Cannaday guardian to my said daughter Ida, provided he shall give bond as required by law.

It is also my will that my executor shall hold in his hands the sum of five hundred Dollars to be used as he may think best to keep my family graveyard in repair.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my Hand and seal this 13th day of Oct. 1886.
