W. H. Hunter
Probate Judge
& Clerk.

Oliver Hearing. Lenoir County.—In the Probate Court.
In the matter of the will } Before W. H. Hunter of Oliver Hearing } Judge of Probate.

James Herring being sworn, doth say:
That Oliver Hearing late of said County, is dead, having first made and published his last Will and Testament, and that James Herring is the executor named therein.

Further, that the property of the said Oliver Hearing consisting of Household and kitchen furniture and a few evidences of debt is worth about $300.00 so far as can be ascertained at the date of this application; and that Nancy Herring is the party entitled under said will to the said property.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 6th day of July, 1878,

W. H. Hunter
Probate Judge.

James Herring.

State of North Carolina,

Lenoir County, In the Probate Court.
A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Oliver Hearing, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Judge of Probate for said County, by James Herring, the executor therein named, and the due execution thereof by the said Oliver Hearing by the oath and examination of Evan E. Noble and Nathan Hill the subscribing witness thereto: who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposeth and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Oliver Hearing, that the said Oliver Hearing in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 11th day of September, 1867. And the deponent further saith, That the said Oliver Hearing, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him, and exhibited, to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponents subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Oliver Hearing was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information, or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

Nathan Hill. (Seal)

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 6th day of July, 1878, before me,

W. H. Hunter
Probate Judge.

Lenoir County—Probate Court, July 6th, 1878.

On reading and considering the application of James Herring to admit a paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Oliver Hearing, deceased, to probate, and to be qualified as Executor thereof, according to the appointment thereby made, and having examined on oath, Evan E. Noble and Nathan Hill, the two subscribing witnesses thereto, as to the execution thereof. It is adjudged that the said paper writing and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said Oliver Hearing, deceased, and the same, as such, is ordered to be recorded and filed. And, thereupon, the said James Herring, the executor aforesaid, comes forward and takes and subscribes the following oath:

State of North Carolina

Lenoir County, ^{ss.} In the Probate Court

I James Herring, do solemnly swear that I believe this writing to be and contain the last Will and Testament of Oliver Herring, deceased; and that I will well and truly execute the same by first paying his debts and then his legacies as far as the said estate shall extend, or the Law will charge one; and that I will well and faithfully execute the office of an executor, agreeable to the trust and confidence reposed in me, and according to Law, so help me God.

James Herring.
