

Lewis Jones. In the name of God. Amen. I, Lewis Jones of the State of North Carolina and County of Lenoir being of sound and perfect mind and memory (blessed be God) do this 3rd day of February, 1853, make, ordain and publish this my last will and Testament, in manner and form following, viz:

Item 1st. I leave to my wife, Matilda, during her natural lifetime, or widowhood, my plantation on which I now reside, which said plantation I then give and bequeath to my son William S. Jones.

Item 2nd. I give and bequeath unto my son George H. Jones and my son in law Ardas Williams, a tract of land lying on the Marsh branch to be equally divided between them.

Item 3rd. I give and bequeath unto my son George H. Jones the four following negroes and their increase hereafter, viz: Margaret, Mary, Vess and Josiah.

Item 4th. I give and bequeath unto my son in law Ardas Williams the three following negroes and their increase hereafter, viz: Dinah, Julia and Menrod.

Item 5th. I give and bequeath unto my son William S. Jones, the two following negroes and their increase hereafter viz: Mooner and Hannah.

I leave to my wife Matilda (Item 6th) during her natural lifetime, or widowhood, the four following negroes, viz: Cuffee, York, Nancy and Jim, which said negroes at her death, or marriage, I desire to be equally divided among them and their increase among my three children.

Item 7th. I give and bequeath to my son William S. Jones one horse named Pierce, two cows and calves, two steers, one bed and furniture, ten head sheep, three bee hives, two sows and pigs and half dozen chairs.

Item 8th. I leave to my wife Matilda, during her natural lifetime, or widowhood, all my crop, stock furniture provision, tools carts &c. (except what I have above bequeathed to my son William S. Jones) which, at her death or marriage, I desire to be equally divided among my three children.

Item 9th. I desire that all my money on hand, and the debts due me, be equally divided among my wife and my three children.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the testator, as his last will and Testament, I hereby affirm in our presence. Ardas Williams, James D. Williams, Edward C. Jones, J. H. Jones.

We, George N. Jones and William A. Jones, do solemnly swear that we believe this writing to be and contain the last will and testament of Lewis Jones, deceased, and that we will well and truly execute the same by first paying his debts and then his legacies as far as the said estate will extend, or the law will charge us, and that we will well and truly execute the office of Executors agreeably to the trust and confidence reposed in us and according to law: so help us God.
