

State of South Carolina,

Senio County. } In the Probate Court
 A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Lura Ann Jones, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Judge of Probate for said county, by James B. Webb, and the due execution thereof, by the said Lura Ann Jones, by the oath and examination of James B. Webb and David E. Curtis, the subscribing witnesses thereto: who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Lura Ann Jones: that the said Lura Ann Jones, in the presence of this deponent subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 21st day of October, 1875.

And the deponent further saith, That the said Lura Ann Jones, the testatrix aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by her and exhibited, to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request, and in the presence of the said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the said time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Lura Ann Jones was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.

Severally sworn and subscribed this 9th day of February, 1876, before me.
 Wm. H. Hunter,
 Probate Judge.

To all whom this may concern.
 I, Lura A. Jones being of sound mind and from my affliction, am satisfied I cannot live long, desire to dispose of my effects as follows: I give my loom and its furniture to L. J. Hill, my bed to Carolina Webb, daughter of J. B. Webb, and all the other perishable property in the house and about the lot to Mary Gay; and I loan to Mary Gay my interest in the house and lot in which I reside in consideration for her kindness to me in my afflictions during her lifetime, and after her death, I give all my interest in said premises to the heirs of J. B. Webb if the premises have to be sold for a division, out of the monies arising therefrom, I want J. B. Webb paid all I owe him, and ten dollars to M. E. Church, South, ten dollars to Lullia Hill and ten dollars to Bettie Hill and the balance to Mary Gay.

J. B. Webb, (seal)
 David E. Curtis, (seal)

Given under my hand and seal, Oct. 21st, 1875.
