

as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by her, and exhibited to be her last will and testament, and this deponent did therupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request, and in the presence of the said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the said time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Nancy Aldridge was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information, or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say, not.

John H. Aldridge
G. M. Aldridge

Severally sworn and subscribed
this 1st day of August,
1873, before me,

W. H. Hunter,
Probate Judge.

I, Nancy Aldridge, of the county of Lenoir and state of North Carolina being of sound mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of life, do therefore make, ordain, publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all wills by me at any time herebefore made, and first of all I direct that my body be decently buried, and that the funeral expenses be paid with the first money coming into the hands of my executors, after all my lawful debts are discharged, the residue of my estate, real and personal, I give, bequeath and dispose of as follows, to wit: To my son, Richard H. Aldridge, my large pot which he has now in possession.

To my daughter Martha Wiggins a cow by the name of Lett and her increase, also one bed and furniture, a colt from the mare, that is, if she has one between now and ten months after my death.

To my granddaughter Frances S. Aldridge, one bed and furniture, also a heifer-calf that was calved this spring.

To my granddaughter Nancy S. Bass one bed and bolster without the furniture.

I direct that my clothing and wearing apparel be equally divided between my children and Nancy S. Bass and her children.

Mossing.

Lastly, I direct that all my live stock that has not been mentioned above, household and kitchen furniture and every kind of property of which I may die possessed, be sold for good and current money, and my funeral expenses and all debts which I may owe owing be paid with the same, and whatever may remain over and above shall be equally divided among all of my children and Mary Herring's children and my daughter Nancy Storring's children.

Likewise, I make, constitute and appoint John H. Aldridge to be executor of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribe my name and affixed my seal this the eighth day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Witnesses:

On reading the application of John H. Aldridge to admit a paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Nancy Aldridge deceased, to probate and to be qualified as executor to said paper writing according to the appointment made by same and having examined on oath John H. Aldridge and G. M. Aldridge the two subscribing witnesses to said paper writing as to the execution thereof,

It is adjudged that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said Nancy Aldridge, and thereupon the said John H. Aldridge, the executor therein appointed comes forward and takes and subscribes the following oath:

State of North Carolina, }
Lenoir County, }
In the Probate Court,

I, John H. Aldridge, do solemnly swear that I believe this writing to be and contain the last will and testament of Nancy Aldridge deceased, and that I will well and truly execute the same by first paying her debts and then her legacies, as far as the said estate shall extend on the law will charge me; and that I will well and faithfully execute the office of an executor, agreeable to the trust and confidence reposed in me, and according to law, as best one God.

Sworn and subscribed before me
this 1st day of August, 1873.

W. H. Hunter,
Probate Judge.

John H. Aldridge

Whereupon, Letters Testamentary are issued to the said John A. Aldridge, as executor of the said last Will and Testament.

J. R. Emery, Seal*

I, Nancy Herring, of the county of Lenoir and state of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament, in manner and form following, that is to say:
First - That my executor (hereinafter named) shall provide for my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my relatives and friends, and pay all funeral expenses together with my just debts, however and to whomsoever owing, out of the moneys that may come into his hands as a part or parcel of my estate.
Item - I give and bequeath unto my son, Benjamin Franklin Herring a life estate in the land upon which I now live, known as the Herring tract of land lying in Bracklesberry, on the east side of Bear Creek. And upon his death, it is my will that the said land be equally divided between his four children, to wit: Elbert, Nancy Ann, Leonna and Allen Herring, and in case of the death of either of
