Nancy Herring, Lenoir County - In the Probate Court
In the matter of the will } Before W. H. Hunter, of Nancy Herring. } Judge of Probate.

Jerry Walters, being sworn, doth say:
That Nancy Herring, late of said county is dead, having first made and published her last will and testament; and that Jerry Walters is the executor named therein.
Further that the property of the said Nancy Herring, consisting of real estate, household and kitchen furniture, clock, etc., is worth about $ as far as can be ascertained at the date of this application; and that Benjamin Franklin Herring, Elbert Herring, Nancy Ann Herring, Clemenna Herring, James Allen Herring, & Sarah Chestnut are the parties entitled under said will to the said property sworn to and subscribed before me this 9th day of Oct, 1873.

*W. H. Hunter,
Probate Judge.*

— Jerry Walters.

Lenoir County - In the Probate Court:
A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Nancy Herring, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Probate Judge in and for said county by Jerry Walters, the executor therein named, and the due examination thereof, by the said Nancy Herring, deceased, is proved by the oath and examination of W. H. Woolley and Dr. J. R. Emery, the subscribing witnesses thereto: who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposes and avers that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Nancy Herring, deceased. That the said Nancy Herring, in the presence of this deponent subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown, as aforesaid, and which bears date on the 1st day of August, 1873, and the deponent further saith that the said testatrix, Nancy Herring, did, at the time of subscribing her name, as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing, so subscribed by her, and exhibited, to be her last will and testament, and this deponent did, thereupon, subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testatrix. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Nancy Herring was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent, and further, these deponents say not severally, sworn and subscribed this 9th day

of October, 1873.
*W. H. Hunter,
Probate Judge.*

*W. H. Woolley, Seal
J. R. Emery, Seal*

I, Nancy Herring, of the county of Lenoir and state of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament, in manner and form following, that is to say:

First - That my executor (hereinafter named) shall provide for my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my relatives and friends, and pay all funeral expenses together with my just debts, however and to whomsoever owing, out of the moneys that may come into his hands as a part or parcel of my estate.

Item - I give and bequeath unto my son, Benjamin Franklin Herring a life estate in the land upon which I now live, known as the Herring tract of land lying in Bracklesberry, on the east side of Bear Creek. And upon his death, it is my will that the said land be equally divided between his four children, to wit: Elbert, Nancy Ann, Clemenna and Allen Herring, and in case of the death of either of grand children, then it is my will that the survivor or survivors, shall inherit the land equally, in fee simple. It is my will that my executor shall, at my death sell at public sale, all my perishable property, except two hids one of which I give to my grand daughter, Nancy Ann, and the other to my grand son, Egbert Herring, and except further, the cream colored horse, which I give to my son, Benjamin Franklin Herring. And except further, one black cow, and about twenty-five pounds of loose feathers—the cow being already in her possession—these, the cow and feathers I give and bequeath to my daughter Sarah Chestnut.

Lastly—I do hereby constitute and appoint my trusty friend, Jerry Warters my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof—hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said Nancy Herring do hereunto set my hand and seal this the 9th day of February, A. D., 1873.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Nancy Herring to be her last will and testament, in the presence of us, who at her request and in her presence do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

P. H. Hooley.
J. P. Emery.

Nancy Herring,

Linneir County, In the Probate Court, Oct 9th, 1873.
On reading the application of Jerry Warters to admit a paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Nancy Herring, deceased, to probate and to be qualified as executor to said paper writing according to the appointment made by same, and having examined on oath P. H. Hooley and J. P. Emery, the two subscribing witnesses to said paper writing as to the execution thereof;

It is adjudged that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said Nancy Herring, and thereupon the said Jerry Warters the executor therein appointed comes for ward and takes and subscribes the following oath.

State of North Carolina,

Linneir County,

I, Jerry Warters, do solemnly swear that I believe this writing to be and contain the last will and testament of Nancy Herring deceased, and that I will well and truly execute the same, by first paying her debts and then her legacies, as far as the said estate shall extend, or the law will charge me; and that I will well and faithfully execute the office of an executor, agreeable to the trust and confidence reposed in me and according to law, so help me God.

Jerry Warters.

Sworn and subscribed before me, this 9th day
of October, 1873.

W. H. Hunter,

Probate Judge.

Whereupon Letters testamentary are issued to the said Jerry Warters, as executor of the said last will and testament.

W. H. Hunter,

Probate Judge.

Recorded in the office of the Probate Judge and Clerk of the Superior Court, in Linneir, Linneir County, North Carolina, the 9th day of October, 1873.

W. H. Hunter,
Probate Judge.

Linneir County.—In the Probate Court
In the matter of the will, Before W. H. Hunter, of Justice Jones, Judge of Probate.

George Jones, being sworn, doth say:
That Justice Jones, late of said county, is dead, having first made and published his last will and testament; and that George Jones is the Executor named therein.

Further, that the property of the said Justice Jones consisting of a tract of land containing about 170 acres, a few notes, stock, household and kitchen furniture and farming implements is worth about $1000.00 so far as can be ascertained, after deduction of the application; and that Elizabeth Jones, Marinda and Lucy Jones, Anna Hobbs, and the four brothers and sisters' children of the said Justice Jones, are the parties
