

Rachel Herring.

Linn County. In the Probate Court.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Rachel Herring, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Probate Judge in and for said County, by John S. Kaly, of said County and State of North Carolina and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of Council S. Hooten that C. Hooten, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, is dead; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of William Fields that Shade Hooten, the other subscribing witness thereto is dead; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said Council S. Hooten that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said C. Hooten, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said C. Hooten, subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the proper handwriting of the said C. Hooten; and it is also proved by the oath and examination of the said William Fields that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said Shade Hooten, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said Shade Hooten, subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said Shade Hooten; and it is also proved by the oath and examination of Joshua Herring that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said testatrix, Rachel Herring, having often seen her write, and that the name of the said Rachel Herring, the testatrix, aforesaid, subscribed at the end of the said paper writing, is in the handwriting of the said Rachel Herring.

It is therefore considered and adjudged, that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said Rachel Herring, and the same, as such, is ordered to be recorded and filed.

This 1st day of December, 1873.

W. H. H. Hunter,

C. S. Croom.

State of North Carolina, } Probate Court
Linn County. } Before W. H. H. Hunter, Judge thereof.

A paper writing without subscribing witnesses purporting to be the last will and testament of C. S. Croom, de'd, is exhibited for probate in open Court by Mary Ann Ready, a female therein named, and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of Rufus Dimple that the said will was found among the valuable papers of the said C. S. Croom.

death; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to wit: Jesse Jackson, Allen Groom, and Rufus S. Temple that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said W. S. Groom, having often seen him write and verily believe that the name of the said W. S. Groom subscribed to the said will and the said will itself, and every part thereof are in the handwriting of the said W. S. Groom. And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses that the said handwriting is generally known to be acquainted with of the said W. S. Groom.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said W. S. Groom, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

April 10, 1876.

W. H. Hunter,
Probate Judge.

I, Charles S. Groom, of the State of North Carolina, Lenoir County, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following (that is to say): after paying my funeral expenses, and all just debts. First, I give and bequeath unto my niece Harriet A. Temple, for the love and affection I have for her, my writing desk, and small bureau, and all my books and papers except my school books.

Item: I give and bequeath unto my kind and faithful Nurse Mary Ann Brady, as a token of my affection of the many services rendered me by her, all my real estate, consisting of all my houses and lands, also all my personal property consisting, consisting of house hold and kitchen furniture, Horses, Cows, Hogs, Carts, and all my other property of any and every kind whatever, after excepting such as has already been disposed of, to have, and to hold and to enjoy the benefit thereof during her natural life, and then the same to go to her children, John C. and James H. Brady, who shall in like manner enjoy the benefits to be derived therefrom, during their natural life, provided they shall drop the name 'Brady' and assume the name 'Groom' instead thereof, and then to their male children, and in case of their decease without male issue, the same to go to my brother William A. Groom's male heirs.

It is my will and desire that the said Mary Ann Brady, shall take immediately in charge all my property left by me, and shall deliver to my niece Harriet A. Temple such as I have given her. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 22<sup>d</sup> day of February A. D. 1875, in the presence of A. S. Smith, and upon whom I call to witness the same.
