

Richard S. Green Test. Will and Testament.

I, Richard S. Green, of the County of Santee and State of South Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say—

Item. That my execatrix (hereinafter named) shall provide for my body a decent burial, and pay all my funeral expenses together with my just debts, however and to whomsoever owing out of the moneys that may first come into her hands as a part or parcel of my estate.

Item. I give and devise to my beloved wife Eliza P. Green my plantation in Craven County, to have and to hold during her life or widow hood together with all the improvements and appurtenances therunto belonging, and after her death the said plantation to be equally divided between my two daughters, Sarah E. White (wife of William White) and Laura A. Green.

Item. If my wife Eliza P. Green, should marry after my death, then it is my wish that my plantation beforenamed, should be equally divided between her and my two daughters, and at the death of my wife Eliza, after such division, that her third part of each land be equally divided between my two daughters Sarah and Laura, to have and to hold during the term of their natural lives, and after their death to go to their children, and if they should either of my daughters beforenamed, die and leave no children then it is my will that she surviving one shall have all the lands and other real estate which I have herein willed to the one so dying, to have and to hold during her natural life, and after her death to be divided and be equally divided between them.

Item. I give and bequeath to my wife Eliza P. Green my house and lot in the town of Charleston, S. C., in which I now reside, together with all my household and kitchen furniture and all other appurtenances unto belonging, to have and to hold during her natural life, and at her death to go to my daughter Laura Green, to have and to hold during her natural life and her death to her nearest blood relative.

Item. I give and devise to my daughter Sarah E. White (wife of William White) my house and lot in the town of Charleston, situated on the corner of McCleane and Street (which house and lot I purchased of R. P. Green) to have and to hold together with all the improvements therunto belonging, to have and to hold during her natural life, and at her death to go to her children, and if she leaves no children to her nearest blood relative.

Item. My will and desire is that all the residue of my estate after taking out the devices and legacies above mentioned, shall be sold and the debts owing to me collected, and if there should be any surplus over and above the payment of debts and expenses, that such surplus shall be equally divided between my said wife and my two daughters share and share alike.

And, lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife Eliza P. Green my lawful execatrix to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof I the said Richard S. Green do hereunto set my hand and seal this 1st day of September, A. D. 1877.

Signed, sealed and declared by the said R. S. Green, to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and his presence, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto

Thomas J. Hadley
Henry G. Dixon.

Dorcas County — In the Probate Court.

The foregoing paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of R. S. Green, made the 1st day of September, 1877, exhibited for probate, Substituted by Eliza P. Green, the executrix therin named, and the due execution thereof by the said R. S. Green was proved by the oath and examination of T. J. Hadley and H. G. Dixon, the subscribing witnesses thereto. I therefore adjudge that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of the said R. S. Green, and he said Eliza P. Green, executrix as aforesaid duly qualified as such by taking the oaths required by law in such case made and provided.

Enrolled in the office of the Superior Court Clerk and Probate Judge of Lenoir County the 29th day of February, 1872.

Testimony.

Lenoir County: Probate Court.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Isaac Stroud, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned judge of Probate for said County, by Amos Stroud and Owen Stroud the Executors therein named and the due execution thereof by the said Isaac Stroud by the oath and examination of John Maxwell, and of Andrus Jones, Sr., the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn doth depose and say, and each for himself deposes and saith that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Isaac Stroud: That the said Isaac Stroud in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date on the 27th day of July, A.D., 1871. And the deponent further saith that the said Isaac Stroud, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him, and exhibited to be his last Will and testament, and this deponent did hereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator, and this deponent further saith that at the said time, when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will and testament as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Isaac Stroud was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any constraint to the knowledge, information, or belief of this deponent, and further these deponents say not.

Several, sworn and subscribed this 6th day of December, 1871.

John Maxwell,
Andrus Jones, Sr.
(Signed) H. S. Green, P.J.

Oath

Lenoir County.

We, Amos Stroud and Owen Stroud do solemnly swear that I believe the writing to be and contain the last will and testament of Isaac Stroud, deceased, and that we will execute the same by first paying his debts, and then his legacy as far as the said testator shall entitle, or the law will charge me, and that we will well and faithfully execute the office of Executors agreeably to the trust and confidence reposed in us according to law: as help us God.
