William Aldridge - I William Aldridge, of the County of Lenoir and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say:

I give and devise to my son Thomas M. Aldridge, the tract of land situated on the south side of my plantation and bounded as follows viz, beginning at a stake on Helling Creek, Red Ditch corner, and my own bearing with the said Ditch, then about 84 feet 109 poles to the Public Road, then running with said Public Road north 20 1/2 west, 120 poles, and 17 links to the Spring Tree Road, then running with said Spring Tree Road S. 75 1/2 E. 70 poles, then S. 65 E. 17 poles, then S. 80 E. 28 1/2 poles, to the falling creek bridge, then running down the various courses of the head of the said falling creek to the beginning, containing about 40 acres. I also give and devise to my son Thomas M. Aldridge another tract of land situated and lying on the north side of the Spring Tree Road and bounded as follows viz, beginning at the bridge on Helling Creek, and running with the Spring Tree Road West 80 or 28 1/2 poles, then N. 15 W. 17 poles, then West 70 1/2 70 poles, to the Public Road, then running with the said Public Road and Spring Tree Road, West 20 1/2 west, 120 poles, and 21 links, to the end of road, then running North 17 1/2 E. 11 1/2 poles, to a former line, then north 21 East 60 poles, then north 17 1/2 East 2 poles, to the head of Helling Creek, then running down the various courses of the head of said creek to the beginning, containing forty two and a half acres, the said last two tracts of land shall be valued by a committee consisting of John M. Aldridge, Red Ditch and Thomas M. Aldridge, and the value thereof in good current money shall be equally divided among the lawful children of my son James B. Aldridge, provided the said James B. Aldridge was ever living at the time of the execution of this instrument, and if not living at the time of the execution of this instrument, the share of said James B. Aldridge and his heirs shall be equally divided among my children.

I also give and devise to my son Thomas M. Aldridge, the tract of land situated on the north side of my plantation and bounded as follows viz, beginning at a stake on Helling Creek, Red Ditch corner, and my own bearing with the said Ditch, then about 84 feet 109 poles to the Public Road, then running with said Public Road north 20 1/2 west, 120 poles, and 17 links to the Spring Tree Road, then running with said Spring Tree Road S. 75 1/2 E. 70 poles, then S. 65 E. 17 poles, then S. 80 E. 28 1/2 poles, to the falling creek bridge, then running down the various courses of the head of the said falling creek to the beginning, containing about 40 acres. I also give and devise to my son Thomas M. Aldridge another tract of land situated and lying on the north side of the Spring Tree Road and bounded as follows viz, beginning at the bridge on Helling Creek, and running with the Spring Tree Road West 80 or 28 1/2 poles, then N. 15 W. 17 poles, then West 70 1/2 70 poles, to the Public Road, then running with the said Public Road and Spring Tree Road, West 20 1/2 west, 120 poles, and 21 links, to the end of road, then running North 17 1/2 E. 11 1/2 poles, to a former line, then north 21 East 60 poles, then north 17 1/2 East 2 poles, to the head of Helling Creek, then running down the various courses of the head of said creek to the beginning, containing forty two and a half acres, the said last two tracts of land shall be valued by a committee consisting of John M. Aldridge, Red Ditch and Thomas M. Aldridge, and the value thereof in good current money shall be equally divided among the lawful children of my son James B. Aldridge, provided the said James B. Aldridge was ever living at the time of the execution of this instrument, and if not living at the time of the execution of this instrument, the share of said James B. Aldridge and his heirs shall be equally divided among my children.

Item 1. I do also one Term & Blarney,
 I do give to my son Josiah W. Aldridge, a tract of land bounded as follows, viz.
