of W. F. Loftin } Before W. W. N. Hunter, Judge of Probate A paper writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of W. F. Loftin, dec'd, is exhibited for probate in open Court by E. F. Gilbert, one of the Executors therein named, and it is thereupon proved by the oath & examination of E. F. Cox and John C. Hooten that William White, J. D.
Jackson and Joseph B. Taylor, the subscribing witnesses, thinks are now dead, and it is also proved by the oath and examination of E. F. Cox, that he is well acquainted with the hand writing of the said William White, J. D.
Jackson and Joseph B. Taylor, having often seen them write, and that the names of said William White, Joseph B. Taylor and J. D. Jackson subscribed as witnesses to said will is in the hand writing of said William White J. D. Jackson and Joseph B. Taylor. And it is further proved upon the oath John C. Hooten that he is well acquainted with the hand writing of the said W. F. Loftin, the said testator, having seen him write, and that the name of the said W. F.

Loftin is in the hand writing of the said W. F. Loftin.
And it is also proved upon oath and examination of Josephine E. Loftin. That the said will was sent to her by letter, from Wm F. Loftin, the said testator, her husband, from the State of Virginia, thereupon depositing the same with her, and that she has had the custody of the said will ever since, it is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of the said Wm F. Loftin, the same is ordered to be recorded and filed

In the name of God Amen. I William Franklin Loftin of the County of Lenoir and State of North Carolina, and at the time of this writing a member of Captain Williams White's company of Cavalry, 63rd regiment, N. C. Troops, in the Service of the Confederate States, being of sound mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, and which is ^{indeed} more precarious by the perils, exposures and vicissitudes of war, do therefore make, ordain, publish & declare this to be my last Will and testament: - that is to say, First and lastly, after the expenses of my funeral and interment, should the same be discharged unto me through the mercy of that beneficent Creator, in whom I put my trust, and after all my lawful debts shall have been paid and discharged, the residue of my estate, real and personal in possession, remainder, reversion and expectancy, intended to include every species of property capable of ownership: I give and bequeath to my beloved wife
