

Canaday and B. H. Canaday, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself, depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Margaret Phillips, that the said Margaret Phillips, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 11th day of Aug., 1874.

And the deponent further saith, That the said Margaret Phillips, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited, to be her last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix.

And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid, the said Margaret Phillips was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was, under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further, these deponents say not.

James L. Canaday, (deaf)
B. H. Canaday, (deaf)

Severally sworn and subscribed this 26th day of November, 1879, before me.
W. H. Huntley,
Probate Judge.

Lenoir County, Probate Court, Nov. 26, 1879.

On reading and considering the application of W. L. McCoy to admit a paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Margaret Phillips, dec'd, to probate, and to be qualified as Executor, according to the appointment therein made, and having examined on oath, James L. Canaday and B. H. Canaday, the attesting witnesses thereto as to the execution thereof:

It is adjudged that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of Margaret Phillips, dec'd, and the same, as such, is ordered to be recorded and filed. And thereupon, the said W. L. McCoy, the executor aforesaid, comes forward and takes and subscribes the following oath:

State of North Carolina, } In the Probate Court.
Lenoir County. }

I, William L. McCoy, do solemnly swear, that I believe this writing to be and contain the last will and testament of Margaret Phillips, deceased, and that I will well and truly execute the same by first paying her debts and then her legacies, as far as the said estate shall extend or the law will charge me; and that I will well and faithfully execute the office of an executor, agreeable to the trust and confidence reposed in me, and according to law, as help me God.

Sworn and subscribed before me, this 26th day of November, 1879.

W. H. Huntley,
Probate Judge.

William L. McCoy.

Whereupon, letters testamentary are issued to the said William L. McCoy as Executor of the said last will and testament.

W. H. Huntley,
Probate Judge.

I Margaret Phillips of the County of Lenoir and State of North Carolina being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say.

First That my executor hereinafter named, shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my relations and friends and pay all funeral expenses together with all my just debts, howsoever and to whomsoever owing out of the moneys that may first come into his hands as a part or parcel of my estate.

Item 2nd. I give to my daughter Osgan Sumrell one dollar to be paid her by my executor out of any moneys coming into his hands belonging to my estate not already disposed of.

Item 3rd. I give and bequeath to my beloved children, Osgan Sumrell, Cynthia Moore, Zilpha McCoy and Elizabeth Phillips all of my household and kitchen furniture such as of