

April 1834

Adam Eagle, Will

The last Will & Testament of Adam Eagle of the State of North Carolina & County of Lincoln & Adam Eagle Considering the uncertainty of his mortal life and being of sound mind & memory (helped by god for the same) doth make & publish this my last Will & Testament in manner and form following (that wife give and bequeath to my well beloved wife Eva a plenarie & decent support & maintenance Out of my estate during her life. And my will and meaning is that she shall hold peaceable possession of the house wherein I now live & also to have free passage in the house or over part or part so long as she liveth & also to have the privilege & right in the Out houses, garden, yard & her life time.

I do give & bequeath to my well beloved son Samuel The tract of land he now liveth on containing fifty acres be the same more or less as has been run off to him by my attorney Devises as follows. Beginning at a Stake on the East side of the bank of the Creek and fence thence South 50 1/4 rods to a Box Oak on the old line thence with said line N 33 1/2 E, to a cut Oak an old corner stone with the old line N 7 1/2 E 54 rods to a stake on the Branch of said Creek thence up the said creek the various courses thereof to the beginning & all the woods, ways waters & water courses and all and every the appurtenances thereto belonging or in any wise appur-tenancing to the river or rill or brook running through the premises & fronting the above said land and premises & every part thereof and all the estate right title interest property & demand whatsoever to him & his heirs and assigns forever to have the above willed tract of land I doth give and bequeath to my wife above named George the plantation whereon I now live the whole of it to be his own his heirs and assigns forever which includes all my lands excepting the fifty acres above named & willed to my son Samuel his & his heirs, wife & children, I also direct that my son George (at the death of my wife) shall pay to my son John Fifty Dollars & to my daughter Polly One hundred Dollars

April Second 1834 Adam Seagles Will Contnue

Also to my two Daughters Elizabeth & Sarah are Bequeathed ~~One Hundred~~ Fifty Dollars each, My son George his heirs Executors & Administrators shall pay the above named sums to John Polley, Polly, Elizabeth & Sarah, the said Willed land or houses my son George his heirs & executors shall have it forever 4th I direct that my beloved Daughter Polly shall have a horse & bridle & saddle & Bridle after my death 5th I direct that Elizabeth & Sarah my beloved daughters each of them shall have a horse & bridle & saddle & Bridle at my death I also direct that each of them shall have the same quantity or worth of household furniture that my daughter Polly got when she left home also each of them to have the same quantity of Cattle & 6th I direct that my son George shall pay all my just debts that may be at my death, with some of the payable property that I may leave or otherwise as may best befit and all the property that may be left or remain at the death of my wife that is not particularly bequeathed I direct to be equally divided between my son George & my two daughters namely Elizabeth & Sarah And I hereby make and Administer my worthy friend Jacob Ransom (son of John) Executor of this my last Will & Testament In witness whereof I the said Adam Seagles have hereunto set my last will & Testament set my hand & seal this 3rd day of March on the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred & thirty four

Signed sealed, published & affidated by the said Adam Seagles the testator his last will & Testament in the presence of us who were present at the time of signing & sealing thereof.

Adam Seagles (u)

Jacob Ransom
Solomon Sharp Testate

Jacob Ransom Esq Esq